At the Court at Windsor Castle, the 23rd day of January, 1911.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fifteenth day of December, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of All Saints, Birkenhead, situate within the new parish (sometime particular district) of Saint Saviour, Oxton, in the county of Chester and in the diocese of Chester.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Saint Saviour, Oxton, and of the parish of Bidston, in the said county and diocese, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parish and parish.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said new parish of Saint Saviour, Oxton, and of the said parish of Bidston should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of All Saints, Birkenhead, situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Francis John, Bishop of Chester, as such Bishop, and also as the patron, in right of his See, of the vicarage of the said parish of Bidston, and with the consent of the Reverend Percival Carteret Robin, of Woodchurch Rectory, Birkenhead, Clerk in Holy Orders, as the patron of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Saviour, Oxton (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Saint Saviour, Oxton, and of the said parish of Bidston, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of All Saints, Birkenhead, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Bede, Birkenhead.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal Wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Bede, Birkenhead, comprising:—

"I. All that portion of the new parish (sometime particular district) of Saint Saviour, Oxton, in the county of Chester and in the diocese of Chester, which is bounded upon the north by the parish of Bidston, upon the east by the new parish of Christ Church, Claughton cum Grange, both in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the south and upon the west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Christ Church, Claughton cum Grange, from the said new parish of Saint Saviour, Oxton, at the junction of the road called Manor Hill with the road called Sandy Way, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of Sandy Way for a distance of nine chains or thereabouts to its junction with Shrewsbury Road North, and extending thence northward along the middle of Shrewsbury Road North for a distance of seven chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Saviour, Oxton, from the said parish of Bidston.

"II. And also all that portion of the said parish of Bidston, which is bounded upon all
