

sides as follows, that is to say, upon the north-west and upon the north by the new parish of Saint James, Birkenhead, upon the east partly by the last-named new parish and partly by the new parish of Saint Anne, Birkenhead, both in the said county and diocese, upon the south partly by the said new parish of Christ Church, Cloughton cum Grange, and partly by the above-described portion of the said new parish of Saint Saviour, Oxton, and upon the south-west partly by the last-named new parish and partly by an imaginary line commencing at the point near the eastern end of Ashburton Road where the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Saviour, Oxton, from the said parish of Bidston meets the middle of Ashburton Road, and extending thence eastward along the middle of Ashburton Road for a distance of two chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Tollemache Road, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of Tollemache Road for a distance of twenty-one chains and a half or thereabouts to a point opposite to the boundary stone on the eastern side of Tollemache Road where the boundary which divides the said parish of Bidston from the said new parish of Saint James, Birkenhead, meets the eastern side of such road, and extending thence eastward across Tollemache Road to the said boundary stone."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chester.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Windsor Castle, the 23rd day of January, 1911.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fifteenth day of December, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten, in the words and figures following, this is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Alban, Broadheath, situate in the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint George, Altrincham, in the county of Chester and in the diocese of Chester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Alban, Broadheath, situate as aforesaid:

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Francis John, Bishop of Chester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of Saint George, Altrincham, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Alban, Broadheath, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Alban, Broadheath.'

"And with the like consent of the said Francis John, Bishop of Chester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Alban, Broadheath, situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal Wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Alban, Broadheath, being:—All that part of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint George, Altrincham, in the county of Chester and in the diocese of Chester, which is bounded upon the east by the new parish of Christ Church, Timperley, upon the north partly by the new parish of Saint John, Baguley, partly by the parish of Ashton-upon-Mersey, and partly by the new parish of Saint George, Carrington, upon the west by the new parish of Saint Margaret, Dunham Massey, all in the
