

said county and diocese, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the south, by an imagināry line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Margaret, Dunham Massey, from the said new parish of Saint George, Altrincham, turns westward towards Seamonsmoss Bridge along the towing path on the northern side of the Bridgewater Canal, and extending thence first southward to the middle of the said canal and then first eastward and then north-eastward along the middle of such canal for a distance in all of one mile and seventeen chains or thereabouts to the point where the said canal crosses Timperley Brook upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint George, Altrincham, from the said new parish of Christ Church, Timperley."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chester.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Windsor Castle, the 23rd day of January, 1911.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation bearing date the fifteenth day of December, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Matthew, Newport, situate in the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint John the Evangelist, Maindee, in the county of Monmouth and in the diocese of Llandaff.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Matthew, Newport, situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Joshua Pritchard, Bishop of Llandaff (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Maindee, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Matthew, Newport, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Matthew, Newport.'

"And with the like consent of the said Joshua Pritchard, Bishop of Llandaff, (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Matthew, Newport, situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always that so long as the Reverend David Ernest Llewellyn-Jones, Clerk in Holy Orders, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Maindee, shall continue to be such vicar or incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of such publication, solemnization, or performance at the said church of Saint Matthew, Newport, situate as aforesaid, shall be paid over by the minister thereof to the said David Ernest Llewellyn-Jones, and provided also that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal Wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Matthew, Newport, being all that part of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint John the Evangelist, Maindee, in the county of Monmouth and in the diocese of Llandaff, which is bounded upon the west partly by the new parish of All Saints, Crindau, and partly by the parish of Saint Woolos (Newport), both in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the south, upon the east, and upon the north, by an
