

Nhowyn annexed containing according to the last census a total population of 816. That both chapelries have churches situated two miles and one and half miles respectively from the said district in which baptisms churchings marriages and burials have been performed from time immemorial.

" 6. That the patronage of or right of collation to the said vicarage of Bodedern belongs to me in right of my See of Bangor and I hereby signify my consent as such patron and the Reverend James Evans is the incumbent thereof; that the Bishop of Llandaff is the present patron and the Reverend John Alfred Rees is the present incumbent of the said benefice of Rhoscolyn with the ancient chapelries of Llanfairyn-Neubwll and Llanfhangelyn-Nhowyn annexed.

" 7. That there is a considerable hamlet or village known as Cae'r-geiliog situate partly within the said district and partly within the said chapelries adjacent to and contiguous to the said district and that it is now proposed to erect a church or churchroom on a site voluntarily given and situate within the said district for the convenience and accommodation of the inhabitants of the said hamlet.

" 8. That it appears to me that the said district may under the provisions of the Pluralities Act 1838, be advantageously separated from the said vicarage and parish of Bodedern and be annexed for ecclesiastical purposes to the said benefice of Rhoscolyn with the chapelries aforesaid thereto annexed and to be and become part of the said chapelry of Llanfhangelyn-Nhowyn.

" That pursuant to the directions contained in the 26th Section of the said Act of Parliament I the said bishop have drawn up a scheme in writing appended hereto describing the mode in which it appears to me that the alterations can best be effected and how the changes in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction glebe lands tithes rent charges and other ecclesiastical dues rates and payments and in respect to patronage and rights to pews may be made with justice to all parties interested.

" And I do hereby submit the same to your Grace together with my consent thereto in writing as patron of the said benefice of Bodedern and that of the Bishop of Llandaff as patron of the benefice of Rhoscolyn with the chapelries aforesaid annexed And also the consents in writing of the incumbents of the said benefices to the intent that if your Grace shall on full consideration and enquiry be satisfied with such scheme you may certify the same and such consents by your report to His Majesty in Council.

" SCHEDULE.

" All that said district being part of the parish of Bodedern bounded on the western side by the parish of Llanfairyn-Neubwll and on the southern and south eastern sides by the parish of Llanfhangelyn-Nhowyn being numbered in the ordnance map of the year 1899,— 566, 567, 569, 570, 572, 573, 574, 575, 576, 577, 578, 1159, 1160, 1161, 1162, 1163, 1164, 1165, 1166, 1167, 1168, 1169, 1170, 1171, 1172, 1173, 1174, 1175, 1176, 1177, 1178, 1179, 1180, 1181, 1182, 1183, 1184, 1185, 1186, 1187, 1188, 1189, 1190, 1191, 1193, 1194, all which district is delineated on the plan attached hereto and therein verged red."

And whereas the said scheme drawn up by the said bishop is as follows:—

" SCHEME.

" That the portion of the said parish of Bodedern mentioned and described in the above schedule and more particularly delineated in the annexed plan be separated from the said parish and be united for ecclesiastical purposes to the said parish or benefice of Rhoscolyn and be and become part of the said chapelry of Llanfhangelyn-Nhowyn and that such portion shall be subject to the same ecclesiastical jurisdiction as the said benefice and chapelry. That the inhabitants of the said district of the parish of Bodedern shall not in future be entitled to any accommodation in the said parish church of Bodedern and shall be exonerated from all liability if any to repair the said parish church but shall be entitled to accommodation in the church of Llanfhangelyn-Nhowyn and shall be liable subject nevertheless to the provisions of the Compulsory Church Rates Abolition Act, 1868, to the repairs of the church of Llanfhangelyn-Nhowyn.

" That the incumbent of Rhoscolyn with the chapelries of Llanfairyn-Neubwll and Llanfhangelyn-Nhowyn annexed shall have exclusive cure of souls within the limits of the above described portion or district of the parish of Bodedern.

" That no alteration shall be made in the patronage of any of the benefices affected by the scheme nor shall the endowments of any such benefices be in anywise affected except as stated in the next succeeding clause.

" That all ecclesiastical dues offerings and other emoluments other than tithes arising from or in respect of the said portion or district of Bodedern and usually payable to the incumbent of a benefice shall belong and be paid to the incumbent of Rhoscolyn with Llanfairyn-Neubwll and Llanfhangelyn-Nhowyn."

And whereas the said bishop, as patron of the said vicarage of Bodedern, has consented in writing to the said scheme, and the Right Reverend Joshua Pritchard, Lord Bishop of Llandaff, as patron and the Reverend John Alfred Rees as incumbent of the said rectory of Rhoscolyn with the chapelries of Llanfairyn-Neubwll and Llanfhangelyn-Nhowyn annexed, and the Reverend James Evans, as incumbent of the said vicarage of Bodedern, have signed the consents following:—

" CONSENTS.

" We the Right Reverend Joshua Pritchard Lord Bishop of Llandaff being the patron or person entitled to present to the said benefice of Rhoscolyn with the chapelries of Llanfairyn-Neubwll and Llanfhangelyn-Nhowyn annexed in the county of Anglesey and diocese of Bangor in case the same were now vacant and the Reverend John Alfred Rees clerk incumbent of the said benefice do hereby severally signify to your Grace our consents as patron and incumbent respectively of the said benefice to the scheme above proposed and set forth and to every matter and thing therein contained In testimony whereof we have hereunto set our hands this nineteenth day of February one thousand nine hundred and ten.

" J. P. LLANDAFF.

" JOHN ALFRED REES.

" I the Reverend James Evans the present incumbent of the said benefice of Bodedern in
