

Local Government Board, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that no new burial ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require: Provided always that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please His Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered: Provided also that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and the Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas by the Burial Act, 1855, it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish of Didsbury, Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, ten days' previous notice of their intention in that behalf have made a representation that for the protection of public health the Orders of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria in Council of the 11th day of June, 1863, and the 2nd day of March, 1881, relating to burials in the said parish of Didsbury, should be varied so as to provide that burials should be discontinued forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Saint James, Didsbury, Manchester, and in the Churchyard attached thereto:

And whereas His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the 23rd day of January last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council, on the 28th day of February, 1911, and that the said Order should be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and that copies thereof should be affixed in the manner required by the said first recited Act:

And whereas copies of the said Order have been so affixed accordingly:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Orders of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria in Council of the 11th day of June, 1863, and the 2nd day of March, 1881, relating to burials in the parish of Didsbury, Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, be varied so as to provide that burials be discontinued forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Saint James, Didsbury, Manchester, and in the churchyard attached thereto.
