

church of Saint Michael and All Angels, Ocklynge, situate in the parish of Eastbourne, in the county of Sussex and in the diocese of Chichester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Michael and All Angels, Ocklynge, situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles John, Bishop of Chichester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Eastbourne, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Michael and All Angels, Ocklynge, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Michael, Ocklynge, Eastbourne.'

"And with the like consent of the said Charles John, Bishop of Chichester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Michael and All Angels, Ocklynge, situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal Wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Michael, Ocklynge, Eastbourne, being:—All that part of the parish of Eastbourne, in the county of Sussex and in the diocese of Chichester, which is bounded upon the north-west, upon the north, and upon part of the north-east, by the parish of Willingdon, upon the remaining part of the north-east and upon the south-east by the new parish of Christ Church, Eastbourne, upon part of the south by the new parish of Saint Anne, Upperton, Eastbourne, all in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the remaining part of the south and upon the west by an imaginary line, commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Anne, Upperton, Eastbourne, from the said parish of Eastbourne, at the junction of Torfield Road with Selwyn Road, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of Selwyn Road for a distance of fourteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with Watts Lane, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of Watts Lane for a distance of eleven chains or thereabouts to its junction with Crown Street, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of Crown Street for a distance of five chains or thereabouts to its junction with Ocklynge Road, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of Ocklynge Road for a distance of two chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Motcombe Road, and extending thence first westward, then north-westward, and then south-westward along the middle of Motcombe Road for a distance of twenty-one chains or thereabouts to its junction with Green Street, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of Green Street for a distance of seven chains or thereabouts to its junction with Monceux Road, and extending thence south-westwards along the middle of Monceux Road for a distance of nine chains or thereabouts to its junction with Upwick Road, and extending thence north-westward first along the middle of Upwick Road and then along the middle of the road in continuation thereof, known as Victoria Drive, for a distance in all of forty-four chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of Eastbourne from the said parish of Willingdon."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chichester.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 22nd day of March, 1911.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council,

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the second day of February, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assign-
