The following memorandum respecting the procedure prescribed under Portuguese law for the presentation of claims upon properties lately held by Religious Associations in Portugal, is published for general information.

MEMORANDUM.

PROCEDURE TO BE FOLLOWED IN THE CASE OF CLAIMS UPON THE PROPERTIES LATELY OCCUPIED BY RELIGIOUS ASSOCIATIONS IN PORTUGAL.

1. His Majesty's Minister at Lisbon is advised that claims upon the properties lately occupied by religious associations in Portugal will only be considered if they are presented in accordance with the provisions of the decree promulgated by the provisional Government on the 31st December, 1910, a translation of which is annexed hereto. This view is based on the two paragraphs of article 3, in which it is provided that—

Any third parties, who consider that they have a right to do so, may prove their title to the above-mentioned properties, or enforce any rights to them which they
