

second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas it has been represented to us and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of Hucknall under Huthwaite shall be altered in the manner which is hereinafter mentioned.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edwyn, Bishop of Southwell (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the boundaries of the said new parish of Hucknall under Huthwaite shall be altered so that all that portion of the said parish of Sutton in Ashfield, which is described in the schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed and is thereon coloured pink, shall be severed from such parish and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said new parish of Hucknall under Huthwaite.

"And we further represent, recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing, recommending or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

"The territory to be annexed to the new parish of Hucknall under Huthwaite, in the county of Nottingham and in the diocese of Southwell, being:—All that portion of the parish of Sutton in Ashfield, in the said county and diocese, which is bounded upon the north partly by the parish of Skegby, in the said county and diocese, and partly by the said new parish of Hucknall under Huthwaite, upon the west by the last mentioned new parish, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the south-east and upon the east, by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the tramway leading from the new Hucknall Colliery to Hucknall Lane crosses the boundary which divides the said new parish of Hucknall under Huthwaite from the said parish of Sutton in Ashfield, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said tramway for a distance of twenty-two chains or thereabouts to its northern end, and extending thence north-eastward and in a straight line for a distance of one chain and a half or thereabouts to the junction of Hucknall Lane with the occupation road leading past the eastern side of the house known as The Siddalls, and extending thence first northward and then north-eastward along the middle of such occupation road for a distance of twenty-one chains or thereabouts to a point at or near its north-eastern end and opposite to the fence forming the eastern boundary of the field numbered 1 upon the map or plan annexed to this scheme or representation, and extending thence northward to and along the said fence and along a line in continuation thereof for a distance in all of eleven chains and a half or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of Sutton in Ashfield from the said parish of Skegby."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme or representation have been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the cures affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such scheme or representation and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme or representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme or representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Southwell.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 4th day of May, 1911.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, and of the Saint Mary Stockport Rectory Act, one thousand nine hundred and ten, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the ninth day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, and of the Saint Mary Stockport Rectory Act, 1910, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken out of the new parish (sometime district) of Saint Matthew, Stockport, within the original limits of the parish of Stockport, in the county of Chester and in the diocese of Chester.

"Whereas we are satisfied that the said new parish of Saint Matthew, Stockport, is a cure wherein or in parts whereof the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof and it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said new parish of Saint Matthew, Stockport, which is hereinafter mentioned and described, should be constituted a separate district in the manner which is hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas there is not at present within
