Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 4th day of May, 1911.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation bearing date the sixth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John the Evangelist, situate at Greengates, in the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Luke, Eccleshill, in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint John the Evangelist, situate at Greengates, as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend William Boyd, Bishop of Ripon (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of Saint Luke, Eccleshill, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint John the Evangelist, situate at Greengates, as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist, Greengates.'

"And with the like consent of the said William Boyd, Bishop of Ripon (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnised or performed at the said church of Saint John the Evangelist, situate at Greengates, as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal Wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The district chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist, Greengates, being all that part of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Luke, Eccleshill, in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon, which is bounded upon the east partly by the new parish of Saint Mary, Laister Dyke, and partly by the parish of Calverley, upon the north-east by the chapelry of Rawdon, upon the north and upon the north-west by the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Idle, all in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the south-west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Idle, from the said new parish of Saint Luke, Eccleshill, at the centre of the bridge or culvert which carries the Shipley Branch Line of the Great Northern Railway across the stream called Haigh Beck, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of one mile and fifty chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge or culvert which carries such line of railway across the stream called Fagley Beck, upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Luke, Eccleshill, from the said new parish of Saint Mary, Laister Dyke."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:
