

church of Saint Martin, Edmonton, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Martin, Edmonton.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Martin, Edmonton, comprising:—

"1. All that portion of the parish of Edmonton, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, which is bounded upon the south by the new parish (sometime district) of Saint Mary, Edmonton, in the said county and diocese, upon the east by the parish of Chingford, in the county of Essex and in the diocese of Saint Albans, upon the north-east by the new parish of Saint Peter, Lower Edmonton, upon part of the north-west by the new parish of Saint Michael, Edmonton, both in the said county of Middlesex and in the said diocese of London, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the remaining part of the north-west and upon the south-west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Michael, Edmonton, from the said parish of Edmonton, at the junction of Hertford Road with New Road, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of New Road for a distance of thirteen chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries such road across the Edmonton branch line of the Great Eastern Railway, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of thirty-two chains and a half or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of Edmonton from the said new parish of Saint Mary, Edmonton.

"2. And also all that portion of the said new parish of Saint Mary, Edmonton, which is bounded upon the south-east by the said parish of Chingford, upon the north by the above described portion of the parish of Edmonton, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the south-west and upon the south, by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said parish of Edmonton from the said new parish of Saint Mary, Edmonton, crosses the middle of the said Edmonton branch line of the Great Eastern Railway, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of twenty chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the mile post indicating ten miles from London, and extending thence due east in a straight line (thereby crossing the main line of the Great Eastern Railway and the canal known as the River Lea Navigation) for a distance of fifty chains or thereabouts to a point on the eastern side of the River Lea, upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Mary, Edmonton, from the said parish of Chingford."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 4th day of May, 1911.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation bearing date the twenty-third day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Mark, Woodcote, Purley, situate within the parish of Beddington, in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Southwark.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Beddington and of the parish of Coulsdon, in the said county and diocese, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said parish of Beddington and of the said parish of Coulsdon should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Mark, Woodcote, Purley, situate as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Stuart, Bishop of Southwark, as such Bishop, with the consent of John Henry Bridges, of Ewell Court, in the said county of Surrey, Esquire, as the patron of the rectory of the said parish of Beddington, and with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Randall Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury, as the patron in right of his see of the rectory of the said parish of Coulsdon (in the testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said
