

be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas under Article 1451 of the Regulations for the government of Your Majesty's Naval Service, an allowance at the rate of 4d. a day is payable under certain conditions to the person employed on the duties of sick berth attendant, for the days on which he is so employed in ships in which no man of that rating is serving:

"And whereas the duties performed are such as to render it desirable to establish a daily, in lieu of an intermittent allowance, and that the rate of allowance should vary according to the responsibilities involved:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction the following scale of allowances in place of the allowance authorized at present:—

"(1) 3d. a day to men employed on the duty in ships in which—

(a) A sick berth rating is allowed but not borne;

(b) A sick berth rating is not allowed nor a medical officer borne:

"(2) 2d. a day to men employed in ships in which a sick berth rating is not allowed but a medical officer is borne:

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 1st day of May, 1911, in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas by section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted inter alia that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council.

"And whereas under the existing Regulations for the government of Your Majesty's Naval Service provision is not made for the issue of any pay or wages to Petty Officers, Seamen, or Boys of the Royal Navy or to Non-Commissioned Officers or Men of the Royal Marines borne on ships' books when in debt to the Crown, except on first entry.

"And whereas we consider that it would be of benefit to the Service and would alleviate an undoubted hardship if men who are in debt, and whom it is intended to retain in the Service, were allowed to receive some advance of pay.

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction the issue of advances of pay to men in debt at rates not exceeding those laid down for men who allot in Appendix III., Part 2, of the Regulations, the rate of advance in the case of monthly payments being that authorized for men who allot at the maximum rate.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by the Burial Act, 1900, it is provided that, in case it appears to His Majesty in Council, upon the representation of the Local Government Board, that for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits or in any burial grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that no new burial ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require: Provided always that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please His Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered: Provided also that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall
