

have been given to the Incumbent and the vestry clerk or churchwardens of such parish.

And whereas the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the churchwardens of the parish of King's Cliffe, in the county of Northampton, ten days' previous notice of their intention in that behalf, have made a representation to His Majesty in Council that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in the civil parish of King's Cliffe aforesaid, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, and that burials should be discontinued in the said parish as hereinafter directed.

And whereas by an Order in Council dated the 22nd day of March, 1911, notice of such representation was given, and it was ordered that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council on the 1st day of May, 1911, and that the said Order in Council should be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parish affected by such representation one month before the said 1st day of May, 1911.

And whereas the said Order in Council of the 22nd day of March, 1911, has been duly published in the London Gazette and copies thereof have been affixed in the manner directed by the said Order:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the opening of any new burial ground in the said civil parish of King's Cliffe, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, be and the same is hereby prohibited, and that burials in the said parish be discontinued as follows, viz.:—

KING'S CLIFFE.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of All Saints, in the parish of King's Cliffe, in the county of Northampton; and in the churchyard, with the following exceptions, that is to say:—

(a) In any vault or walled grave now existing in the said churchyard, burial may be allowed, subject to the conditions that every coffin buried in such vault or grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented;

(b) In any earthen grave now existing in the said churchyard the burial may be allowed of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons heretofore buried in such grave, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave;

(c) In the said churchyard, in any grave space in which no interment has heretofore taken place, the burial may be allowed of the body of any person for whom or of any member of a family for which such grave space has been reserved and appropriated as a burial place, with the exclusive right of burial therein, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

(d) In the said churchyard, in any grave space in which no interment has taken place during the period of fourteen years prior to the date of the Order in Council, the burial may be allowed, of the bodies of George and Augusta Coleman, at their decease; subject in each case to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

Buckingham Palace,

May 10, 1911.

This day had Audience of The King:—

Phya Akharaj Varathara, to present Phya Visutr Kosa's Letters of Recall and his own Credentials as Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from His Majesty the King of Siam; and also to present a Letter announcing the death of His late Majesty King Chulalongkorn of Siam;

And Señor Don Jerónimo Avilés to present his Credentials as Minister Resident from the Republic of Ecuador.

Foreign Office,

May 8, 1911.

The KING has been pleased to command that the following Regulations respecting Foreign Orders and Medals shall be substituted for those hitherto in force:

1. It is The King's wish that no subject of His Majesty shall wear the Insignia of any Foreign Order without having previously obtained His Majesty's permission to do so, signified either:

(a) By Warrant under the Royal Sign-Manual, or

(b) By private permission conveyed through His Majesty's Private Secretary.

2. Permission given by Warrant under the Royal Sign-Manual will enable the Insignia of the Foreign Order to be worn at all times and without any restriction.

Private permission will only enable the Insignia to be worn on the occasions specified in the terms of the letter from The King's Private Secretary conveying the Royal Sanction.

3. The full and unrestricted permission by Warrant under the Royal Sign-Manual is designed, subject to the exception mentioned in Rule 4 (a) respecting British Naval or Military Officers during hostilities, to meet cases where the Decoration may be said to have been earned by some valuable service rendered to the Head of the State conferring it, or to the State itself. The private or restricted permission is contemplated for Decorations which are more or less of a complimentary character. In either case, the matter will be submitted to The King by His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs.

4. Full and unrestricted permission by Warrant under the Royal Sign-Manual is contemplated in the following cases:—

For a Decoration conferred—

(a) On an Officer in His Majesty's Naval or Military Forces lent to a Foreign Government; on an Officer in His Majesty's Naval
