The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable Robert Offley Ashburton, Earl of Crewe, K.G. (Lord Privy Seal), one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, His Lordship was this day, by His Majesty's Command, sworn one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State accordingly.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 25th day of May, 1911.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the sixth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called “the said benefice”) of Brenzett, in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Canterbury.

“Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Brinzett is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession free from incumbrances in Francis Drake Brockman of Beachborough, in the county of Kent, Esquire.

“And whereas the said Francis Drake Brockman is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Brenzett, now vested in him as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Most Reverend and Right Honourable Randall Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury, in right of his See.

“And whereas the said Randall Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary, he, the said Randall Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

“And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Brenzett which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say in the parish of Brenzett.

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Francis Drake Brockman (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Randall Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his archiepiscopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Brenzett, now vested in him the said Francis Drake Brockman as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Randall Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury, and his successors in the same archbishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Randall Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury, and by his successors in the same archbishoprick for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. "And whereas the said Archibald, Bishop of Exeter, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary, he, the said Archibald, Bishop of Exeter, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Clawton, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Clawton.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. The KING has been graciously pleased to appoint—

Reginald Thomas Tower, Esq., C.V.O., to be His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to the Argentine Republic;

Walter Beaupré Townley, Esq., to be His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary at the Court of His Majesty the King of Roumania; and Francis William Stronge, Esq., to be His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to the United States of Mexico.

Whitehall, May 24, 1911.

The KING was pleased, on Tuesday, the 23rd May, at Buckingham Palace, to present the Albert Medal of the Second Class to each of the undermentioned persons:—

(1) Miss Hilda Elizabeth Wolsey, a nurse at the Hanwell Asylum; for an act of gallantry as set forth in the London Gazette of the 28th March, 1911; and upon

- (2) Miss Amy Madeline Jacques, of Otterwood Farm, Beaulieu, Hampshire; and
(3) Mr. Percy Hope Mellon, lock-keeper, at Iffley Lock, Oxford;

for acts of gallantry as detailed below:—

AMY MADELINE JACQUES.

On the 26th March last her brother, Mr. Francis Jacques, was suddenly attacked by a bull, knocking him on to the ground. A cowman who was with him at the time shouted for help, and Mr. Jacques, sen., aged 74, came to the yard and struck the bull on the head with his stick. The animal turned and tossed the old man, and again attacked the son. Mr. Jacques, sen., fortunately not seriously hurt, was dragged out of the yard by the cowman, and Miss Jacques, who had been attracted to the scene by the shouting, went to the house for a gun. She was afraid, however, of using the gun, as the bull had pinned her brother against a wall. With great presence of mind she got hold of the bull by its horns and pulled its head away, but was unable to release her brother. She ran to the house, and, bringing back the cowman, who was helping her father indoors, she again held the bull's horns, while the cowman dragged Mr. Francis Jacques, who was insensible and severely injured, into safety. Happily Miss Jacques escaped without injury, though narrowly, for the doorway through which she rushed on releasing her hold of the bull, was immediately charged by the infuriated animal.

PERCY HOPE MELLON.

Mr. Mellon is the lock-keeper at Iffley Lock, on the Thames, near Oxford, and the Albert Medal was awarded to him for bravery in saving the life of a woman who had fallen into the river. On the night of the 24th February the lock-keeper was called from his house and informed that a woman was in the river. He hastened to the spot, but owing to the darkness was unable to find any trace of the woman. Returning towards the lock he observed in the water a dark object which was being rapidly carried by the strong stream and high wind towards the partly-opened weir. Swimming towards it he discovered that it was a woman floating on her side apparently lifeless, and was able to bring her safely to land, aided by his son, who had pluckily swum out to his father's assistance. The woman was taken from the river unconscious, but she soon recovered, and was able to go home.

The Railway curves in an easterly direction for about 27 chains and then continuing in a south-eastern course crosses the public road from Woodhall Spa to Tattershall and passing a little to the south of the south-western corner of Tattershall Carr Wood goes eastwards and crosses over the public road from Tattershall to Kirkby-on-Bain, over the River Bain, and over the public road from Coningsby to Horn-castle about 8 chains north-east of the Baptist Chapel at Coningsby. Continuing eastwards it passes the southern end of Troy Wood, crosses the public road from Boston to Revesby about 12 chains south of Saint Peter's Church at New Bolingbroke and the public road from Boston to Spilsby about 27 chains north of Saint Luke's Church at Stickney. Turning more northwards the Railway crosses over Hob-hole Drain about 25 chains south of the point at which it is joined by Bell Water Drain and terminates in the Township of Eastville in the Rural District of Spilsby by a Junction with the East Lincolnshire Railway at a point thereon about 2 chains south-west of the bridge carrying that railway over the Bell Water Drain. The railway will pass from, in, through or into the following Parishes or Townships or some of them: Kirkstead, Tattershall Thorpe, Tattershall, Coningsby, Tumbly, Mareham-le-Fen and Revesby, all in the Rural District of Horn-castle; Carrington in the Rural District of Sibsey; and West Fen, Stickney, Midville, New Leake, Eastville, and Thorpe St. Peter, all in the Rural District of Spilsby.

The Order will authorise the Company to exercise all such powers as may be necessary or expedient for the construction, maintenance, and use of the railway (including power to levy tolls, rates, and charges upon or in respect of the railway and works).

The Order will authorise the Company to apply their funds and revenues, and to raise additional capital for all or any of the purposes of the Order.

The Order will vary and extinguish all existing rights and privileges which would interfere with its objects and it will incorporate with itself with or without modifications the provisions or some of the provisions of the Companies Clauses Acts, 1845 to 1889, the Lands Clauses Acts as varied by the Light Railways Act, 1896, the Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, and the Railways Clauses Act, 1863, and the order will or may so far as may be deemed expedient extend the powers of the Company under the Great Northern Railway Act, 1846 (9 & 10 Vict. c. 71) and the other Acts relating to the Company or their undertaking.

Plans of the railway and works, and of the lands which will or may be taken under the powers and for the purposes of the Order, together with a Book of Reference to such plans and sections of the railway and works and an ordnance map with the line of the railway delineated thereon so as to show generally its length, course and direction, and an estimate of the expenses of the railway and works, and a copy of the draft Order will on or before the 30th day of May instant be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the County Council of the Parts of Lindsey at his office at Lincoln; with the Clerks of the Rural District Councils of Horncastle, Sibsey and Spilsby at their offices at Horncastle, Boston and Spilsby respectively; with the Clerks of the Parish Councils of the following Parishes or Townships at their respective residences, namely:—Tattershall Thorpe, Tattershall, Coningsby, Tumbly, and Revesby, all in the Rural District of Horncastle; Carrington, in the Rural District of Sibsey; and Stickney, New Leake, Eastville, and Thorpe St. Peter, all in the Rural District of Spilsby; with the Chairman of the Parish Meetings of the following Parishes or Townships at their respective residences, namely, Kirkstead, and Mareham-le-Fen in the Rural District of Horncastle, and West Fen, and Midville in the Rural District of Spilsby; and at the undermentioned office of the undermentioned Solicitor; and on and after the same date copies of the draft Order can be obtained on payment of one shilling per copy at the said undermentioned office.
