on the occasion of Our Coronation, and for your good wishes.

It is a source of satisfaction to Us to be assured so cordially of the loyalty and devotion of men who occupy a position in the State which carries with it so much responsibility for the peace and contentment of My people. I am confident that you will worthily uphold the traditions of British Liberty and Justice.

BUCKS COUNTY COUNCIL.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.
Most Gracious Sovereign.

We, Your Majesty's loyal subjects, The Chairman, Vice-Chairman, and Members of the County Council for Buckinghamshire, with feelings of deep loyalty and devotion, humbly address Your Majesty upon the occasion of Your Majesty's Coronation.

With all our hearts we offer our sincere and hearty congratulations to Your Majesty, and Your illustrious Consort, confident that the welfare of Your Majesty's subjects will be ever foremost in Your Majesty's thoughts.

May Your Majesty long continue to reign, strong in the affections of Your people, resting on the solid foundations of liberty and justice, for the preservation of peace, and for the general advancement of civilization throughout Your Majesty's Dominions.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

The Queen and I thank you for this loyal Address of Congratulation from the Chairman, Vice-Chairman, and Members of the Buckingham County Council.

We shall often, when at Windsor, have occasion to visit your County, and we feel sure that the loyalty and affection to which the earnestness of your welcome bears witness to-day will never fail Us. The welfare of My people will ever be the first object in My thoughts, and I trust that, by God's blessing, My Reign may be marked by Peace and Prosperity throughout the Realm.

BUCKS TERRITORIAL FORCE ASSOCIATION.

To His Most Excellent Majesty the King.

May it please Your Majesty,

We, the President, Chairman and Members of the Territorial Force Association of the County of Buckingham, most respectfully desire to approach your Majesty with the expression of our loyal and hearty congratulations upon the occasion of your Majesty's Coronation.

We earnestly pray that under the Blessing of Almighty God Your Majesty's Reign may be long, happy and glorious.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

It gives Me much pleasure to receive this Address from the Territorial Force Association of the County of Buckingham, and I thank you for your loyal congratulations.

It is My wish and intention to follow in the steps of My Father, and to strive, as He did, to promote the welfare of the Territorial Force.

SLOUGH URBAN DISTRICT COUNCIL.

To The King's Most Excellent Majesty, and to Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen,

The humble, loyal and dutiful Address of The Chairman and Members of the Urban District Council of Slough, Bucks.

May it please Your Majesties,

We, the Chairman and Members of the Urban District Council of Slough, in the County of Buckingham, desire to lay before your Majesties an expression of our loyal and dutiful attachment, and of our most loyal and sincere congratulations upon the Coronation of Your Majesties.

Your Majesty ascends a Throne unique in the annals of history.

The wide expanse of Empire over which Your Majesty is called to rule is unexampled, and the illustrious line of predecessors in your exalted office is without a parallel.

We deeply appreciate your Majesty's gracious permission to approach you with this assurance of our loyal and dutiful greeting, which is shared by all your Majesty's loyal subjects the inhabitants of Slough, and we gratefully recall the occasions on which Your Majesty's illustrious Predecessors graciously allowed the Council to offer congratulations to them in 1887, in 1897 and in 1902 at Slough.

We fervently pray that Your Majesties will be long spared in the Reign which has so auspiciously begun.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

The Queen and I thank you for your dutiful Address, and for your congratulations and good wishes to Us on the occasion of Our Coronation.

The strong impression which we have sustained of the spontaneous loyalty shown Us by the immense assemblies during Our progresses through the Capital in no way diminishes Our pleasure in the personal goodwill of Our neighbours and those who know Us in Our home at Windsor. We are always glad to be among you, and, if God is pleased to grant your prayer, We are sure that the years as they pass will strengthen the ties that now exist between Us.

PROVOST, FELLOWS AND MASTERS OF ETON.

To Their Most Excellent Majesties the King and Queen.

May it please Your Majesties,

We, Your Majesties' humble and loyal subjects, the Provost, Fellows, and Masters of the Royal College of Eton, beg leave to approach Your Majesties with the expression of our deep and grateful sense of Your gracious condescension in thus honouring us with your Royal presence, and to tender to your Majesties a most respectful and cordial welcome on behalf of the College and School.

We gladly avail ourselves of this opportunity to offer our most loyal congratulations on the occasion of your Majesties' Coronation, together with our heartiest wishes for your health and happiness; and we earnestly pray that, by God's blessing, Your Majesties' labours in Your exalted station may be fruitful in all that fosters the true greatness and welfare of a Nation, may be encouraged by ever-increasing proof of general progress and contentment, and may be lightened and cheered by the assured affection of a prosperous and grateful people.

July 1st, 1911.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

The Queen and I are glad to receive the congratulations and good wishes of the Provost, Fellows, and Masters of Our Royal College of Eton.

The warmth of your greeting is in harmony with the loyalty of your ancient Foundation. We thank you for your words of sympathy and encouragement. We count upon you to serve Us still further by fostering in those committed to your care a standard of manliness, knowledge, courtesy, and public spirit which will not be unworthy of the renown of Eton.

SCHOLARS AND OPPIDANS OF ETON.

To Their Most Excellent Majesties The King and Queen.

May it please Your Majesties,

We, the King's Scholars and Oppidans of Your Royal College and School of Eton, humbly beg leave to approach Your Majesties with the assurance of our most loyal devotion, and with heartfelt gratitude for the honour so graciously accorded to us in Your presence amongst us to-day.

Eton, under the favour of successive Sovereigns, has ever been the nurse of loyal sentiments. In this our generation those sentiments have been, if possible, quickened to a greater strength when, as at present, in the hearts of the English people, there is one unanimous desire for the prosperity and welfare of their King and Queen.

We humbly offer to Your Majesties a welcome to Eton to-day, and express a hope that in the future this Royal Foundation may continue to enjoy the same meed of gracious favour to which it has owed its existence and its prosperity in the days that are past.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

I thank you on behalf of the Queen and Myself for the Address of Welcome which has been read to Us from the King's Scholars and Oppidans of Eton College and School.

It is a great pleasure to Us to visit Eton again and to receive, so soon after the solemn ceremony of Our Coronation, the assurance of the loyalty and devotion to the Crown which is one of the firmest traditions of your School.

Here you enjoy many advantages in the education you receive and in the circumstances of your lives. The British Empire requires at the present time hard service from all its sons. It requires the hardest service from those to whom most has been given. You will, I am sure, in the course of your lives lose no opportunity of rendering service to your Country and to the Nation. Those opportunities occur in times of peace as often as in times of war. By seizing them and turning them to the fullest account you will be able to take your part in the work which My people have to do all over the world, and so continue to send out from these historic walls men as great and as useful as those who have gone before.

I shall always take a keen interest in Eton, not only in memory of its ancient Royal Foundation, but as a neighbour and a friend. I am confident that in future you will never forget that upon you rests the responsibility of upholding the honour of Eton and her world-wide fame.

ETON URBAN DISTRICT COUNCIL.

To Their Most Excellent Majesties The King and Queen.

May it please Your Majesties,

We, the Members of the Eton Urban Council, beg to approach Your Majesties with an expression of our loyal congratulations on Your Majesties' Coronation, and of our earnest hope that Providence may bestow health and happiness on Your Majesties and the Royal Family and peace and prosperity on the whole Kingdom and Empire.

Living under the shadow of the Royal Fortress of Windsor, we are specially sensible of the great influence for good exercised by the example which Your Majesty's Royal Predecessors have set to many generations of their subjects, and we devoutly pray that Your Majesty's reign may under Providence be equally beneficial to Your Majesty's loyal and loving subjects, and equally cheered to Your Majesties by the affectionate devotion of a united and grateful people.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

We thank you sincerely for this kindly expression of your congratulations and good wishes.

Your Address is a further proof, if any were needed, that there is no abatement in the warmth of the friendship that has always subsisted between the Sovereign and the people of Eton. You may rest assured that your welfare will always be the subject of Our earnest solicitude.

At Windsor Bridge the following Address was presented to Their Majesties:—

THAMES CONSERVANCY.

To Their Most Excellent Majesties.

The Humble Address of the Conservators of the River Thames.

May it please Your Majesties,

We, Your Majesties' loyal and faithful subjects, the Conservators of the River Thames, humbly approach Your Most Gracious Majesties, and respectfully assure You of our dutiful and hearty congratulations on the occasion of Your Coronation.

The River Thames has for centuries past been associated historically with the Sovereigns of this Kingdom, and that part of the river between Cricklade and Teddington over which we now exercise jurisdiction still maintains its great popularity as the pleasure resort of a vast number of Your Majesties' subjects, on whose behalf we desire to express our deep sense of thankfulness for the concern You have always shown in their welfare and happiness.

We humbly beseech Almighty God that

Your Majesty and our beloved Sovereign Lady the Queen may long be spared to rule over Your loyal and devoted subjects in peace and prosperity.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

We thank you for your loyal and dutiful Address, and we are glad to have this opportunity of testifying to Our interest in your work.

The Thames is the pride of every Englishman who has learnt its story or experienced the fascination of its summer beauty. The Upper Reaches which you control contribute to the health and enjoyment of Our people, as its tidal waters serve in the development of their commerce and industries.

We have seen from year to year the great improvements which are constantly being effected under your direction, and We are sure that your efforts will continue to be attended by an increasing measure of success.

On the arrival of the Royal Procession at Queen Victoria's Statue the following Address was presented:—

BOROUGH OF WINDSOR.

To Their Most Excellent Majesties King George V and Queen Mary.

May it please Your Majesties,

We, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Royal and Ancient Borough of New Windsor, humbly approach Your Majesties, and beg to offer a loyal and sincere welcome upon Your return to the Ancestral Home of the Sovereigns of England after the historic ceremony which has so recently taken place. We rejoice in the knowledge that Your Majesties are devoting your lives to the advancement of the British Empire and the well-being of the people over which you so beneficently rule, and that since the commencement of Your Reign You have, by the deep interest that You have taken in all classes of Your subjects, earned their loyal regard and deep affection. We desire to express our gratitude for the gracious sanction only recently given to the setting aside, for the healthful sports of the young men of the neighbourhood, a portion of the Royal Park for use as a recreation ground, and to give our assurance that this thoughtful concession will be most highly valued by all who are interested in those athletic pursuits which have proved so beneficial to the manhood of the British race.

We devoutly pray that Almighty God may bless you both with health and strength to enable you for many years to carry out the profound duties that your exalted rank has placed upon you. We also pray that Your friendship with the Foreign Powers of the world may continue, so that Your Reign may be one of peace, that Your Empire, so widely divided by the seas, may be closely united in loyalty to Your Majesties, and that the ever-increasing intercourse between the Mother Country and her Colonies may bring with it continuous commercial prosperity.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

The Queen and I thank you heartily for this renewed assurance of the loyalty and affection of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, on this first visit to Our beautiful home at Windsor after the Coronation.

We are grateful to you for your kindly and well-considered words. It is my earnest wish to know and understand the legitimate interests and feelings of all classes of My subjects at home and overseas.

The progress and prosperity of Windsor hold an intimate place in Our thoughts. It has given Me pleasure to be able to set aside for your use as a recreation ground a portion of the Royal Park. The cultivation of physical efficiency is of peculiar importance in the present age of mental exertion, and I feel sure that the youth of Windsor will take full advantage of the opportunities which will thus be afforded them for healthful and manly recreation.

Here beneath the Statue of the great Queen Victoria our hearts must be filled with thankfulness for the influence and example of Her home life at Windsor. We look forward with feelings of pleasure and gratitude to the creation of a similar memorial which is to be erected by the people of Windsor to My beloved Father. We remember His pride in the Castle and all its surroundings, and the keen personal interest with which He followed the many improvements carried out here during His reign. Such memories of the past will ever endear to Us Windsor and its people, and their prosperity and welfare will be Our abiding trust.

Whitehall, July 8, 1911.

The following Addresses were presented to Their Majesties on Friday, the 7th inst., on Their arrival at Holyhead, on Their way to Ireland:—

ANGLESEY COUNTY COUNCIL.

To His Most Excellent Majesty The King,
To her Most Gracious Majesty Queen Mary, and To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

We, the County Council of Anglesey, desire to offer to Your Majesties, and to His Royal Highness, dutiful and loyal greetings, with warmest welcome on Your visit to this county.

Your Majesties' Coronation and the other great and solemn ceremonies and functions of the period, to conclude with the Imperial Durbar at Delhi, proclaim to the world the extent and might of Your Majesty's Realm.

Your Majesty's subjects will acclaim at the Investiture of His Royal Highness as Prince of Wales their loyal affection for his Person, and their faithful allegiance to Your Majesty's Dynasty.

Grave and manifold are the duties and obligations attaching to Your Majesty's exalted Office, and we pray that the Almighty Ruler of all men may guard and guide Your Majesty in all things, and that God's blessings may ever attend your Majesties and His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

I thank you on behalf of the Queen and the Prince of Wales and Myself for your loyal welcome to the County of Anglesey.

Amongst the great events of Our Coronation year the Investiture of Our dear son is one to which we look forward with peculiar pleasure, and I am confident that it will serve to awaken in the fullest measure that deep loyalty and affection which the Welsh people have always given to their Prince.

Your kind wishes and prayers will sustain Me in the responsibilities of My office, and my efforts for the welfare of My people will be made easier by the assurance of your sympathy and support.

HOLYHEAD URBAN DISTRICT COUNCIL.

To Their Most Excellent Majesties King George V and Queen Mary, and to His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

We, the Chairman, Vice-Chairman, and Members of the Holyhead Urban District Council most humbly and respectfully desire, on behalf of the Town of Holyhead, to tender to Your Majesties, and to His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, the expression of our loyal and dutiful attachment to Your Majesties and our Prince, on this, your first visit to Wales after your Coronation.

It is only four years since we had the privilege and pleasure of welcoming His late Majesty King Edward VII and his gracious Consort, Queen Alexandra. They then came to lay the foundation stone of an educational institution established for the benefit of the whole of North Wales. Your Majesties now come to open the new buildings then so auspiciously begun, and North Wales rejoices at this gracious manifestation of the continued Royal interest in the efforts of this part of the Principality on behalf of higher education.

But, even more than as a recognition of what Wales has done for its educational institutions, we welcome Your Majesties' present visit to North Wales because it is connected with the Investiture of the Heir Apparent to the Throne with his insignia as the Prince of our own native land in the historic Castle of Carnarvon. This is an event which will make Your Majesties' visit this year ever memorable among the people of Wales.

We fervently pray Almighty God to guide and preserve Your Majesties and His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, and to grant a continuance of those blessings so abundantly bestowed upon Your Majesties and His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales in the past.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

It gives Us much pleasure to receive this loyal and dutiful Address from the Holyhead Urban District Council, and I thank you on behalf of the Queen and the Prince of Wales and in My own name for your prayers and good wishes, and for the sentiments of personal attachment which you express.

The Queen and I look forward with the greatest interest to Our return to Wales next week, when We shall take part in the Investiture of Our Son as Prince of Wales, a ceremony which will associate the Principality with the great events of Our Coronation year in a manner befitting so loyal and important a part of Our Dominions.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th. day of July, 1911.

And whereas by an Order in Council dated the 20th day of March, 1863, provision was made in pursuance of the said Act to enable parties to appeal from the decisions of the Supreme Court of the Province of Nova Scotia to Her Majesty in Council:

And whereas it is expedient, with a view to equalizing as far as may be the conditions under which His Majesty's subjects in the British Dominions beyond the Seas shall have a right of appeal to His Majesty in Council, and to promoting uniformity in the practice and procedure in all such appeals, that the said Order in Council of the 20th day of March, 1863, should be revoked and that new provision should be made for regulating appeals from the said Supreme Court to His Majesty in Council:

It is hereby ordered by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the said Order in Council of the 20th day of March, 1863, be and the same is hereby revoked, and that the rules herein set out shall regulate all appeals to His Majesty in Council from the said Province of Nova Scotia.

1. In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires:—

"Appeal" means appeal to His Majesty in Council;

"His Majesty" includes His Majesty's heirs and successors;

"Judgment" includes decree, order, sentence, or decision;

"Court" means either the full court or a single judge of the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia according as the matter in question is one which, under the rules and practice of the Supreme Court, properly appertains to the full court or to a single judge.

"Record" means the aggregate of papers relating to an appeal (including the pleadings, proceedings, evidence and judgments) proper to be laid before His Majesty in Council on the hearing of the appeal;

"Registrar" means the Registrar or other proper officer having the custody of the records in the court appealed from;

"Month" means calendar month;

Words in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular.

2. Subject to the provisions of these rules, an appeal shall lie—

(a) as of right, from any final judgment of the court, where the matter in dispute on the appeal amounts to or is of the value of £500 sterling or upwards, or where the appeal involves, directly or indirectly, some claim or question to or respecting property or some civil right amounting to or of the value of £500 sterling or upwards; and

(b) at the discretion of the court, from any other judgment of the court, whether final or interlocutory, if, in the opinion of the court, the question involved in the appeal is one which, by reason of its great general or public importance or otherwise, ought to be submitted to His Majesty in Council for decision.

3. Where in any action or other proceeding no final judgment can be duly given in consequence of a difference of opinion between the judges, the final judgment may be entered pro forma on the application of any party to such action or other proceeding according to the opinion of the chief justice or, in his absence, of the senior puisne judge of the court, but such judgment shall only be deemed final for purposes of an appeal therefrom, and not for any other purpose.

4. Applications to the court for leave to appeal shall be made by motion or petition within 21 days from the date of the judgment to be appealed from, and the applicant shall give the opposite party notice of his intended application.

5. Leave to appeal under Rule 2 shall only be granted by the court in the first instance—

(a) upon condition of the appellant, within a period to be fixed by the court, but not exceeding three months from the date of the hearing of the application for leave to appeal, entering into good and sufficient security, to the satisfaction of the court, in a sum not exceeding £500, for the due prosecution of the appeal, and the payment of all such costs as may become payable to the respondent in the event of the appellant's not obtaining an order granting him final leave to appeal, or of the appeal being dismissed for non-prosecution, or of His Majesty in Council ordering the appellant to pay the respondent's costs of the appeal (as the case may be); and

(b) upon such other conditions (if any) as to the time or times within which the appellant shall take the necessary steps for the purpose of procuring the preparation of the record and the despatch thereof to England as the court, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, may think it reasonable to impose.

6. Where the judgment appealed from requires the appellant to pay money or perform a duty, the court shall have power, when granting leave to appeal, either to direct that the said judgment shall be carried into execution or that the execution thereof shall be suspended pending the appeal, as to the court shall seem just. And in case the court shall direct the said judgment to be carried into execution, the person in whose favour it was given shall, before the execution thereof, enter into good and sufficient security, to the satisfaction of the court, for the due performance of such order as His Majesty in Council shall think fit to make thereon.

7. The preparation of the record shall be subject to the supervision of the court, and the parties may submit any disputed question arising in connection therewith to the decision of the court, and the court shall give such directions thereon as the justice of the case may require.

8. The Registrar, as well as the parties and their legal agents, shall endeavour to exclude from the record all documents (more particularly such as are merely formal) that are not relevant to the subject-matter of the appeal, and, generally, to reduce the bulk of the record as far as practicable, taking special care to avoid the duplication of documents and the unnecessary repetition of headings and other merely formal parts of documents; but the documents omitted to be copied or printed shall be enumerated in a list to be placed after the index or at the end of the record.

9. Where in the course of the preparation of a record one party objects to the inclusion of a document on the ground that it is unnecessary or irrelevant, and the other party nevertheless insists upon its being included, the record, as finally printed (whether in Nova Scotia or in England) shall, with a view to the subsequent adjustment of the costs of and incident-tal to such document, indicate in the index of papers, or otherwise, the fact that, and the party by whom, the inclusion of the document was objected to.

10. The record shall be printed in accordance with the rules set forth in the Schedule hereto. It may be so printed either in Nova Scotia or in England.

11. Where the record is printed in Nova Scotia the Registrar shall, at the expense of the appellant, transmit to the Registrar of the Privy Council 40 copies of such record, one of which copies he shall certify to be correct by signing his name on, or initialling, every eighth page thereof and by affixing thereto the seal, if any, of the court.

12. Where the record is to be printed in England, the Registrar shall, at the expense of the appellant, transmit to the Registrar of the Privy Council one certified copy of such record, together with an index of all the papers and exhibits in the case. No other certified copies of the record shall be transmitted to the agents in England by or on behalf of the parties to the appeal.

13. Where part of the record is printed in Nova Scotia and part is to be printed in England, Rules 11 and 12 shall, as far as practicable, apply to such parts as are printed in Nova Scotia and such as are to be printed in England respectively.

14. The reasons given by the judge, or any of the judges, for or against any judgment pronounced in the course of the proceedings out of which the appeal arises, shall by such judge or judges be communicated in writing to the Registrar, and shall by him be transmitted to the Registrar of the Privy Council at the same time when the record is transmitted.

15. Where there are two or more applications for leave to appeal arising out of the same matter, and the court is of opinion that it would be for the convenience of the Lords of the Judicial Committee and all parties concerned that the appeals should be consolidated, the court may direct the appeals to be consolidated and grant leave to appeal by a single order.

16. An appellant who has obtained an order granting him conditional leave to appeal may at any time prior to the making of an order granting him final leave to appeal withdraw his appeal on such terms as to costs and otherwise as the court may direct.

17. Where an appellant, having obtained an order granting him conditional leave to appeal, and having complied with the conditions imposed on him by such order, fails thereafter to apply with due diligence to the court for an order granting him final leave to appeal, the court may, on an application in that behalf made by the respondent, rescind the order granting conditional leave to appeal, notwithstanding the appellant's compliance with the conditions imposed by such order, and may give such directions as to the costs of the appeal and the security entered into by the appellant as the court shall think fit, or make such further or other order in the premises as, in the opinion of the court, the justice of the case requires.

18. On an application for final leave to appeal, the court may inquire whether notice, or sufficient notice, of the application has been given by the appellant to all parties concerned, and, if not satisfied as to the notices given, may defer the granting of the final leave to appeal, or may give such other directions in the matter as, in the opinion of the court, the justice of the case requires.

19. An appellant who has obtained final leave to appeal shall prosecute his appeal in accordance with the rules for the time being regulating the general practice and procedure in appeals to His Majesty in Council.

20. Where an appellant, having obtained final leave to appeal, desires, prior to the despatch of the record to England, to withdraw his appeal, the court may, upon an application in that behalf made by the appellant, grant him a certificate to the effect that the appeal has been withdrawn, and the appeal shall thereupon be deemed, as from the date of such certificate, to stand dismissed without express Order of His Majesty in Council, and the costs of the appeal and the security entered into by the appellant shall be dealt with in such manner as the court may think fit to direct.

21. Where an appellant, having obtained final leave to appeal, fails to show due diligence in taking all necessary steps for the purpose of procuring the despatch of the record to England, the respondent may, after giving the appellant due notice of his intended application, apply to the court for a certificate that the appeal has not been effectually prosecuted by the appellant, and if the court sees fit to grant such a certificate, the appeal shall be deemed, as from the date of such certificate, to stand dismissed for non-prosecution without express Order of His Majesty in Council, and the costs of the appeal and the security entered into by the appellant shall be dealt with in such manner as the court may think fit to direct.

22. Where at any time between the date of the order granting final leave to appeal and the despatch of the record to England the record becomes defective by reason of the death, or change of status, of a party to the appeal, the court may, notwithstanding the order granting final leave to appeal, on an application in that behalf made by any person interested; grant a certificate showing who, in the opinion of the court, is the proper person to be substituted or entered on the record in place of, or in addition to, the party who has died or undergone a change of status, and the name of such person shall thereupon be deemed to be so substituted or entered on the record as aforesaid without express Order of His Majesty in Council.

23. Where the record subsequently to its despatch to England becomes defective by reason of the death, or change of status, of a party to the appeal the court shall, upon an application in that behalf made by any person interested, cause a certificate to be transmitted to the Registrar of the Privy Council showing who, in the opinion of the court, is the proper person to be substituted, or entered, on the record, in place of, or in addition to, the party who has died or undergone a change of status.

24. The case of each party to the appeal may be printed either in Nova Scotia or in England, and shall, in either event, be printed in accordance with the rules set forth in the schedule hereto, every tenth line thereof being numbered in the margin, and shall be signed by at least one of the Counsel who attends at the hearing of the appeal, or by the party himself if he conducts his appeal in person.

25. The case shall consist of paragraphs numbered consecutively and shall state, as concisely as possible, the circumstances out of which the appeal arises, the contentions to be urged by the party lodging the same, and the reasons of appeal. References by page and line to the relevant portions of the record as printed shall, as far as practicable, be printed in the margin, and care shall be taken to avoid, as far as possible, the reprinting in the case of long extracts from the record. The taxing officer, in taxing the costs of the appeal, shall, either of his own motion, or at the instance of the opposite party, inquire into any unnecessary prolixity in the case, and shall disallow the costs occasioned thereby.

26. Where the Judicial Committee directs a party to bear the costs of an appeal incurred in Nova Scotia, such costs shall be taxed by the proper officer of the court in accordance with the rules for the time being regulating taxation in the court.

27. The court shall conform with, and execute, any order which His Majesty in Council may think fit to make on an appeal from a judgment of the court in like manner as any original judgment of the court should or might have been executed.

28. Nothing in these rules contained shall be deemed to interfere with the right of His Majesty, upon the humble petition of any person aggrieved by any judgment of the court, to admit his appeal therefrom upon such conditions as His Majesty in Council shall think fit to impose.

Almeric FitzRoy.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the fifth year of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria (session two), chapter twenty-six, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the first day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the fifth year of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria (session two), chapter twenty-six, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing certain improvements to the demesnes adjoining the episcopal house of residence belonging to the See of Exeter, which is known as The Palace, Exeter.

“Whereas a portion of the ancient wall of the City of Exeter extends along the south-eastern side of the demesnes adjoining the said episcopal house of residence and it appears desirable that the said portion of the City Wall should form a part of the said demesnes.

“And whereas the Right Reverend Archibald, now Bishop of Exeter, is desirous that the said portion of the City Wall, should be acquired as an addition to the grounds of the said episcopal house of residence, and that certain works should be undertaken with a view to the improvement of the said wall and has submitted to us the particulars of such works, and we have approved such acquisition of the said portion of the City Wall and the proposed works of improvement.

“And whereas the said Bishop is also desirous, and it appears to us to be expedient, that towards the cost of effecting the said acquisition of the said portion of the City Wall and the said improvements a sum of four hundred pounds (being a sum which does not exceed two years' income of the See) should be provided by the borrowing of the same sum by way of mortgage upon the security of all and every part of the lands, tenements and hereditaments, endowments or emoluments which now belong or may hereafter belong to the Bishoprick of Exeter.”

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Archibald, Bishop of Exeter (testified by his having affixed his signature and episcopal seal to this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that the said Bishop be authorized and empowered to purchase the site of the said portion of the City Wall and take a conveyance of the same to himself and to his successors in the See of Exeter, that he be further authorized to borrow from the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and that the said Governors be empowered to lend under the provisions of the above-mentioned Acts any sum not exceeding four hundred pounds, and that as a security for the same the said Bishop do mortgage all and every part of the lands, tenements and hereditaments, and endowments or emoluments which now belong or may hereafter belong to his said See to the said Governors by deed for the term of twenty years or until the said sum so to be borrowed as aforesaid, with the interest for the same as hereinafter mentioned, and all costs and charges which may attend the recovery thereof, shall be fully paid and satisfied, and that such principal sum shall be repaid with interest in the manner following, that is to say, during and in respect of the first period of twelve months of the said term, computed from the day of the date of the mortgage, no part of the said principal sum shall be repayable, but the said Bishop or his successor shall yearly, at the end of the second period of twelve months so computed, and at the end of every such like period of twelve months thereafter, pay to the said Governors, their successors or assigns, one fifteenth part of the said principal sum until the whole thereof shall be repaid, and shall also at the end of the first and each succeeding period of twelve months, computed as aforesaid, pay interest at the rate of four pounds per centum per annum on the said principal sum or on so much thereof as shall from time to time remain unpaid. And that, if and when it shall happen that either the principal or the interest directed to be paid as hereinbefore mentioned shall be in arrear and unpaid for the space of forty days after the same shall become due, it shall and may be lawful for the said Governors, their successors and assigns, to recover the same and the costs and charges attending the recovery thereof by distress and sale in the like manner as rents may be recovered by landlords or lessors from their tenants by the laws in force at the time of such distress and sale, and that such mortgage deed shall be in the form and to the effect to be approved by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and shall bind, as well the said Archibald, now Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter, as every succeeding Bishop of the same Diocese, until the principal money and interest, costs and charges shall have been paid off and discharged.

“And we further recommend and propose that the said sum so to be borrowed as aforesaid shall be paid to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and that the receipt of our joint treasurers for the time being endorsed on the said mortgage deed shall be a good and sufficient discharge of the said Governors and their successors for the same, who shall not be bound or required to see to the application thereof, and that upon the receipt of the said sum so to be borrowed as aforesaid, the whole or any part or parts thereof shall be applied by us at such times and in such manner as shall appear to us to be expedient towards effecting the said proposed acquisition of the said portion of the City Wall as an addition to the demesnes of the episcopal house of residence aforesaid and the said improvements thereto.

“And we further recommend and propose that the Bishop of Exeter for the time being shall insure against loss or damage by fire and keep insured the said episcopal house of residence, the said insurance to be for a sum of not less than six thousand nine hundred pounds and to be effected in one or more of the public offices of insurance in London or Westminster to be approved by us, and that in case of loss or damage by fire to the same episcopal house of residence the moneys receivable in respect of the said insurance shall be paid over to us by the said Bishop and shall with any interest or accumulation thereon be applied by us in rebuilding or repairing the same episcopal house of residence with the concurrence of the said Bishop.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in conformity with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the registrar of the said diocese of Exeter.

and custody on their arrival, and shall keep and maintain them in the said Gaol until they are either ordered to be discharged or remanded by proper authority, or until they shall have been tried and sentenced, and proper arrangements have been made for their being sent back to the prison from which they were sent for trial, or sent to any other prison which has been duly appointed as an alternative for such prison. If, however, the said Gaol has itself been duly appointed as an alternative prison for the prison from which such prisoners were sent to trial, the Governor of the said Gaol shall, subject to the orders of the Secretary of State, keep and maintain in the said Gaol such prisoner after sentence, until they are discharged in due course of law.

15. The Clerk of Assize at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall have all powers of taxation of Bills of Costs, expenses of prosecution and witnesses, and all other powers necessary for checking and paying such costs relating to the trial of prisoners that the Clerk of Assize in the County where such prisoners were committed would have had if such prisoner had been tried at the Assizes held in such last-mentioned County.

Where any person is committed for trial, or is bound by any recognizance to appear and answer, in the said Winter Assize County, any Judge of the High Court of Justice, or the committing Justice or Justices, or any two of the Justices of the County or place from which he is committed, or admitted to bail, may, upon the application of such person, direct the Treasurer of the County or place where such person was committed, or entered into any recognizance to appear and answer as aforesaid, to advance to such person a sum not exceeding £20 to enable him to defray the travelling expenses of such of his witnesses as may have been bound by recognizances to appear on his behalf; and the Treasurer shall advance such sum, and shall deduct it out of the amount ultimately allowed in respect of such witnesses.

16. In any case where money is ordered by the Court at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County to be paid in respect of costs and expenses of prosecutors and witnesses, the same shall be paid by the Treasurer of the County or place by whom the same would have been payable had a like order been made by a Court of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery in the County where the trial would have taken place but for the Winter Assizes Acts, or for the Assizes and Quarter Sessions Act, 1908, and this Order; and every such Treasurer or some known Agent on his behalf shall attend the said Winter Assizes during the sitting of the Court to pay all such orders.

17. Where the Court at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County remand a prisoner or adjourn any trial, or otherwise make an order respecting a prisoner committed for trial but not acquitted or convicted, the Court may make such order with respect to the removal of such prisoner to a prison in the County or place in which he was committed for trial as to the Court seems just, and the prisoner may be removed accordingly, without any writ of Habeas Corpus.

18. Except where the context otherwise requires, terms used in this Order shall have the same meaning as that which the same terms have in the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877.

19. This Order, unless earlier revoked, shall be in force during the continuance of the Winter Assizes, 1911.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of July, 1911.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IN pursuance of the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Most Honourable Privy Council, to order as follows:—

1. The County of Leicester and the County of Rutland shall, for the purpose of the next Winter Assizes, be united together and form one County, under the name of the Winter Assize County, No. 2.

2. The said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall be held at Leicester.

3. The Court at the Winter Assizes at Leicester shall have jurisdiction to try any prisoner committed in the said Winter Assize County who may be brought before it, and shall have the same powers with respect to the trial of and passing sentence upon such prisoner as a Court of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery would have had at the Assizes in the County where, but for the said Winter Assizes Acts, such prisoner would have been tried.

The provisions of section thirteen of the Sheriffs Act, 1887, shall apply to the execution of any capital sentence passed at such Assizes as herein mentioned; provided that the expression in the said section "the Sheriff of such County" shall mean the Sheriff of the County in which the prisoner so sentenced would have been tried if the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877, had not been passed.

4. The Sheriff of the County of Leicester shall alone act for the purpose of the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, and subject to the provisions of this Order shall have jurisdiction for that purpose over the whole district constituting the said Winter Assize County, and precepts and other documents relating to the said Winter Assizes shall be addressed to him alone.

5. The Gaol Delivery precept of the Judges to the said Sheriff shall direct him to summon the Grand Jurors and Petty Jurors from the County of Leicester, and the Jurors so summoned shall be deemed to be good and lawful men of the body of the several Counties constituting the said Winter Assize County, and the Grand and Petty Jury formed out of those Jurors shall be deemed to be a Grand and Petty Jury respectively of the body of the said Counties respectively, and shall have jurisdiction accordingly.

6. The precepts of the Judges to the said Sheriff shall direct him to cause the prisoners from all the prisons in the said Winter Assize County who under the provisions of this Order will have to be tried at Leicester, to be brought there, and the Sheriff shall cause such prisoners to be brought accordingly without any writ of Habeas Corpus.

7. In all matters not before specifically mentioned the precepts to the said Sheriff shall direct him to issue, and he shall issue the like notices, precepts, warrants, and documents, and perform the same acts (mutatis mutandis) as if he were Sheriff for the whole of the said Winter Assize County, and all Under Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Constables, and Officers in the said Winter Assize County shall obey accordingly.

8. The said Sheriff shall, as to all matters in relation to such Winter Assizes for which no specific provision is made by this Order, have the same power, jurisdiction, and responsibility as if he were Sheriff for the whole of the said Winter Assize County, except that this provision shall not authorize the said Sheriff to carry sentences into execution outside the County of Leicester, or to levy outside the said County fines imposed or recognizances estreated at the said Winter Assizes.

9. All Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Coroners, Escheators, Stewards, Bailiffs, Gaolers, Constables, Officers, and persons having authority, and being under an obligation to attend the Assizes for either County comprised in the said Winter Assize County, or to certify, transmit, or deliver to the Court of Assize, or the proper officer thereof, any indictment, inquisition, recognizance, examination, deposition, or document, shall have the same authority and be under the same obligation to attend at the said Winter Assizes held for the said Winter Assize County, and to certify, transmit, or deliver to the Court of Assize, or the proper officer thereof, such indictment, inquisition, recognizance, examination, deposition, or document. This provision shall not apply to the Sheriff of the County of Rutland.

10. In all indictments and presentments at the said Winter Assizes the venue laid in the margin thereof shall, in addition to the name of the County where the offence is charged to have been committed, contain the words "Winter Assize County, No. 2."

11. Any person who, after the date of this Order and before the said Winter Assizes, enters into a recognizance to appear and prosecute, or give evidence, or to appear and answer before a Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery to be holden for either of the Counties constituting the said Winter Assize County, shall be bound to attend at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County.

12. In all cases in which the like recognizances have been entered into in respect of any offence committed in either of the Counties constituting the said Winter Assize County prior to the making of this Order or in relation to a prisoner committed for trial under the provisions of the Assizes and Quarter Sessions Act, 1908, such recognizances shall be deemed to have been entered into for attendance at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, and every person bound by such recognizance shall be bound to appear at such last-mentioned Winter Assizes, or forfeit his recognizance.

13. Ten days before the day fixed for the opening of the Commission at Leicester, a list of the prisoners to be removed for trial at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, so far as the same list can then be made out, and of the prisoners (if any) to be transmitted under the provisions of the Assizes and Quarter Sessions Act, 1908, shall, together with a short statement of the offences with which they are charged, be transmitted by the Gaoler of each prison in which such prisoners may be to the Sheriff of the County of Leicester, and the said Sheriff shall cause to be inserted in one or more newspapers in the Winter Assize County the said list and statement, and a notice that the persons bound by recognizances to appear and prosecute or give evidence for or against the prisoners so removed shall appear and prosecute and give evidence at Leicester.

14. It shall be lawful for the Gaoler of the Gaol in which prisoners who are to take their trial at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall be in custody three days before the day upon which the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County are appointed to be held, to send, without any writ of Habeas Corpus, such prisoners to His Majesty's Gaol, formerly the Gaol for the County of Leicester at Leicester, for the purposes of their trial, and to take all proper steps for their transmission to the said Gaol, and their maintenance by the way, and the Gaoler of the said Gaol shall receive such prisoners into his charge and custody on their arrival, and shall keep and maintain them in the said Gaol until they are either ordered to be discharged or remanded by proper authority, or until they shall have been tried and sentenced, and proper arrangements have been made for their being sent back to the prison from which they were sent for trial, or sent to any other prison which has been duly appointed as an alternative for such prison. If, however, the said Gaol has itself been duly appointed as an alternative prison for the prison from which such prisoners were sent to trial, the Governor of the said Gaol shall, subject to the orders of the Secretary of State, keep and maintain in the said Gaol such prisoners after sentence, until they are discharged in due course of law.

15. The Clerk of Assize at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall have all powers of taxation of Bills of Costs, expenses of prosecution and witnesses, and all other powers necessary for checking and paying such costs relating to the trial of prisoners that the Clerk of Assize in the County where such prisoners were committed would have had if such prisoner had been tried at the Assizes held in such last-mentioned County.

Where any person is committed for trial, or is bound by any recognizance to appear and answer, in the said Winter Assize County, any Judge of the High Court of Justice, or the committing Justice or Justices, or any two of the Justices of the County or place from which he is committed or admitted to bail, may, upon the application of such person, direct the Treasurer of the County or place where such person was committed, or entered into any recognizance to appear and answer as aforesaid, to advance to such person a sum not exceeding £20 to enable him to defray the travelling expenses of such of his witnesses as may have been bound by recognizances to appear on his behalf, and the Treasurer shall advance such sum, and shall deduct it out of the amount ultimately allowed in respect of such witnesses.

16. In any case where money is ordered by the Court at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County to be paid in respect of costs and expenses of prosecutors and witnesses, the same shall be paid by the Treasurer of the County or place by whom the same would have been payable had a like order been made by a Court of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery in the County where the trial would have taken place but for the Winter Assizes Acts, or for the Assizes and Quarter Sessions Act, 1908, and this Order; and every such Treasurer or some known Agent on his behalf shall attend the said Winter Assizes during the sitting of the Court to pay all such orders.

17. Where the Court at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County remand a prisoner or adjourn any trial, or otherwise make an order respecting a prisoner committed for trial but not acquitted or convicted, the Court may make such order with respect to the removal of such prisoner to a prison in the County or place in which he was committed for trial as to the Court seems just, and the prisoner may be removed accordingly, without any writ of Habeas Corpus.

18. Except where the context otherwise requires, terms used in this Order shall have the same meaning as that which the same terms have in the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877.

19. This Order, unless earlier revoked, shall be in force during the continuance of the Winter Assizes, 1911.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of July, 1911.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 26th day of June, 1911, in the words following, viz.:—

“Whereas by section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted inter alia that all pay, pensions or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an officer, seaman or marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council.

“And whereas under Article 1478 of the Regulations for the government of Your Majesty's Naval Service field allowances are payable to officers and men of Your Majesty's Navy and Royal Marines when employed in military operations on shore and not provided with quarters.

“And whereas officers and men of Your Majesty's Navy and Royal Marines serving afloat are on occasion required to live under canvas when landed for field training, service at rifle ranges, or other duty which does not strictly come within the definition of military service.

“And whereas we are of opinion that the discomfort and extra wear and tear of clothes entailed by such service should be compensated by the grant of an allowance:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction the payment, as from the 1st day of July, 1911, to the officers and men of Your Majesty's Navy and Royal Marines serving afloat, when living under canvas on shore, of allowances calculated at one-half the rates of extra pay for general work laid down in Schedule A of Order in Council of His late Majesty bearing date the 10th day of August, 1909.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

The KING was pleased on Thursday, the 6th July, to present the Albert Medal of the Second Class to Mr. Albert Swainston, for a brave attempt to save a boy from drowning, as detailed below:—

On the 28th of February a boy, aged thirteen, went for a walk along the bank of the river Tees, with some companions, and, while playing with a piece of wood in the water, overbalanced and fell into the river, which was running very high and about 12 ft. deep. Albert Swainston, an apprentice plumber, being called to the spot by the cries of the boy's companions, immediately jumped into the river, fully dressed, and swam towards the boy, who was then about 22 yards from the bank. He got hold of the boy, and struck out for the bankside, but, owing to a strong current of water, he lost his grip. He soon recovered the boy again, and, after considerable difficulty, brought him to the side of the bank, where he managed to get hold of a wall which projects from the bankside, but, owing to his exhausted condition and the boy's continued struggles, he was unable to pull the boy up, and the current of water carried him away. The lad went under the water, and this time did not rise to the surface, and Swainston was too exhausted to attempt again to rescue him.
