

of Saint Luke, Finchley, upon the north-east and upon the east by the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Finchley, upon the south-east and upon part of the south-west by the new parish of All Saints, Childs Hill, Hendon, all in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the remaining part of the south-west and upon the west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of All Saints, Childs Hill, Hendon, from the said parish of Hendon, at the junction of Hoop Lane with Temple Fortune Lane, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of Temple Fortune Lane for a distance of thirty-one chains or thereabouts to its junction with Finchley Road, and extending thence northward along the middle of Finchley Road for a distance of thirty-nine chains or thereabouts to the point where such road crosses the middle of Mutton Brook upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Hendon from the said new parish of Saint Luke, Finchley."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of London.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 8th day of August, 1911.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the thirteenth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Mary, Seven Sisters, situate in the parish of Cadoxton juxta Neath, in the county of Glamorgan and in the diocese of Llandaff.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Mary, Seven Sisters, situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Joshua Pritchard, Bishop of Llandaff (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Cadoxton juxta Neath, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Mary, Seven Sisters, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The district chapelry of Saint Mary, Seven Sisters.'

"And with the like consent of the said Joshua Pritchard, Bishop of Llandaff (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Mary, Seven Sisters, situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal Wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The district chapelry of Saint Mary, Seven Sisters, being:—All that part of the parish of Cadoxton juxta Neath, in the county of Glamorgan and in the diocese of Llandaff, which is bounded upon part of the south by the new parish of Saint Matthew, Dyffryn, upon the west by the parish of Cilybebyll, both in the said county and diocese, upon the north partly by the parish of Ystradgynlais and partly by the parish of Ystradfellte, both in the county of Brecknock and in the diocese of Saint David's, upon the east and upon part of the south-east by the new parish of Aberpergwm, in the said county of Glamorgan and in the said diocese of Llandaff, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the remaining part of the south-east and upon the remaining part of the south, by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said new parish of Aberpergwm from the said parish of Cadoxton juxta Neath diverges from the Roman Road called Sarn Helen, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said Roman Road
