

Exons of the Yeoman of the Guard : Captain Colin W. MacRae. Lieut.-Col. Cecil Wray, M.V.O.	Clerk of the Cheque to the Yeomen of the Guard, Captain Houston French.	EXON of the Yeomen of the Guard, Colonel F. B. de Sales La Terrière.
---	--	---

Twenty Yeomen of the Guard.

DISPOSITION OF PROCESSION DURING THE CEREMONY.

The Chaplains passed to the Seats provided for them.

The Prebendaries entering the Choir, ascended the Theatre, and passed over it to their Station on the South side of the Altar, beyond the King's Chair.

The Pursuivants of Scotland and Ireland stood near the North-West Pillar throughout the ceremony.

The Officers of the Orders of Knighthood passed to the Seats provided for them.

The Treasurer of His Majesty's Household passed to his Station on the South side of the Altar.

The Comptroller of His Majesty's Household passed to his Seat as a Peer.

The Standards were handed to the Barons of the Cinque Ports at the entrance to the Choir.

The Bearers of the Royal Standard, the Standards of the Union, Wales, India, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, and South Africa, passed to their Seats, as Peers.

The Bearers of the Standards of England, Scotland, and Ireland passed to their Seats.

The Vice-Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household passed to his Seat.

The Knights of the Garter appointed to hold the Canopy passed to Seats provided for them.

The Lord Steward of the Household passed to his Seat as a Peer.

The Prime Minister together with the Lord Chancellor of Ireland and his Purse-Bearer passed to the Seats provided for them.

The Purse-Bearer to the Lord High Chancellor passed to a Seat provided for him.

The Archbishop of York ascended the Theatre and passed to his Seat on the North side of the Area.

The Heralds of Scotland and Ireland stood near the South West Pillars throughout the ceremony.

The Ladies of the Bedchamber, the Women of the Bedchamber, and the Maids of Honour, passed to the Seats provided for them.

The Vice-Chamberlain to the Queen passed to his Seat as a Peer. The Treasurer, the Private Secretary, and the Equerry to the Queen passed to their Seats.

Lyon King of Arms, Ulster King of Arms, the Gentleman Usher to the Black Rod and the Lord Mayor of London stood near the South-East Pillar throughout the Ceremony.

The High Constables of Scotland and Ireland passed to their Seats as Peers.

The Great Steward of Scotland and the Lord High Steward of Ireland passed to their Seats as Peers.

The Master of the Horse and the Gold Stick in Waiting passed to their Seats as Peers.

The Vice-Admiral of the United Kingdom passed to his Seat.

The Captain-General of the Royal Archer Guard of Scotland passed to his Seat as a Peer.

The Admiral in Waiting, General the Right Hon. Sir N. G. Lyttelton, and General Sir E. G. Barrow passed to their Seats.

The Captain of the Honourable Corps of Gentlemen-at-Arms, and the Captain of the Yeomen of the Guard passed to their Seats as Peers.

The Lord in Waiting passed to his Seat as a Peer.

The Keeper of His Majesty's Privy Purse passed to his Seat.

The Private Secretaries to the King passed in the one case to his Seat as a Peer and in the other to the Seat provided for him.

The Comptroller, Lord Chamberlain's Department, the Crown Equerry, the Groom in Waiting, the Equerries to the King, and the Silver Stick in Waiting, passed to their Seats.