

last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration, by a Committee of the Privy Council, on the 14th day of August, 1911, and that the said Order should be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and that copies thereof should be affixed in the manner required by the said first recited Act:

And whereas copies of the said Order have been so affixed accordingly:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that so much of the said Order of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria in Council of the 17th day of May, 1879, as relates to burials in the parish of Nevin, in the county of Carnarvon, be varied by substituting therefor the following order:—

That burials be discontinued forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Saint Mary, Nevin, in the county of Carnarvon, and in the churchyard.

At the Court at Balmoral, the 3rd day of October, 1911.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1855, it is, amongst other things, provided that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the 23rd day of January, 1911, to direct (amongst other things) the discontinuance of burials, with certain exceptions, in the parish church of Saint Mary, in the parish of West Walton in the county of Norfolk, and in the churchyard:

And whereas it seems fit to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the said Order in Council, so far as it relates to burials in the said parish church of Saint Mary, in the parish of West Walton aforesaid, and in the churchyard, should be varied:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the said Order in Council of the 23rd day of January, 1911, so far as it relates to burials in the parish church of Saint Mary, in the parish of West Walton in the county of Norfolk, and in the churchyard, be and the same is hereby varied by the addition thereto of the following further excepting clause:

In the said churchyard, in a grave space in which no interment has heretofore taken place within the period of fourteen years prior to the date of this Order, the burial may be allowed of the body of Mrs. Hannah Taylor at her

At the Court at Balmoral, the 3rd day of October, 1911.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by the Burial Act, 1900, it is provided that, in case it appears to His Majesty in Council, upon the representation of the Local Government Board, that for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits or in any burial grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that no new burial ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require: Provided always that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please His Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered: Provided also that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and the vestry clerk or churchwardens of such parish.

And whereas the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the churchwardens of the parish of Holme, in the county of Huntingdon, ten days' previous notice of their intention in that behalf, have made a representation to His Majesty in Council that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in the civil parish of Holme aforesaid, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, and that burials should be discontinued in the said parish as hereinafter directed.

And whereas by an Order in Council dated the 5th day of July, 1911, notice of such representation was given, and it was ordered that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council on the 14th
