Foreign Office,
October 17, 1911.

His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs has received from His Majesty's Ambassador at Rome and Constantinople communications to the following effect:—

Besides the lights permanently extinguished at Brindisi, Taranto and Augusta, which are under military régime, facultative powers have been given to local authorities in case of necessity to put out lights. Amongst these authorities is the Governor of Massowah. It is not known at the Italian Foreign Office whether that official has availed himself of the faculty. No Italian lights except the three above specified had been extinguished on October 11th.

All Ottoman lighthouses from Cape Nagara, Dardanelles, as well as those of Adriatic and Red Sea, have been extinguished by the lighthouse administration under an order of the Turkish Government.
