

part of the north by the said township of Cleadon, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon a small part of the north and upon the east, by an imaginary line commencing at the south-eastern corner of the said township of Cleadon where the boundary which divides that township from the said township of Whitburn diverges northward from following the northern side of Moorlane, and extending thence first southward and then eastward along the middle of Moorlane for a distance of four chains or thereabouts to its junction with the roadway leading to Blue House, and extending thence southward along the middle of the said roadway for a distance of twenty-four chains or thereabouts to the middle of the gateway leading into the premises attached to the said house, and extending thence first eastward and then southward along the line of fences in continuation of the line of the eastern side of the said roadway for a distance of twenty-three chains or thereabouts to a point on the northern side of the stream called Cut Throat Dene, and continuing thence southward in the same direction and in a straight line to a point in the middle of the said stream upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Whitburn from the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Monkwearmouth."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Durham.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of November, 1911.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the nineteenth day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Cynfelyn, Caerau, situate in the parish of Llangynwyd, in the county of Glamorgan and in the diocese of Llandaff.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Cynfelyn, Caerau, situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Joshua Pritchard, Bishop of Llandaff, (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Llangynwyd, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Cynfelyn, Caerau, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Cynfelyn, Caerau.'

"And with the like consent of the said Joshua Pritchard, Bishop of Llandaff, (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Cynfelyn, Caerau, situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that, so long as the Reverend John Jones, Clerk in Holy Orders, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Llangynwyd, shall continue to be such vicar or incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of such publication, solemnization, or performance at the said church of Saint Cynfelyn, Caerau, situate as aforesaid, shall be paid over by the minister thereof to the said John Jones; and provided also that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal Wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The district chapelry of Saint Cynfelyn, Caerau, being:—All that part of the parish of Llangynwyd, in the county of Glamorgan and in the diocese of Llandaff, which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of the civil parish of Llangynwyd Higher."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased
