At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of November, 1911.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the nineteenth day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Andrew, Purlwell, situate in the parish of Batley, in the county of York and in the diocese of Wakefield.

“ Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Andrew, Purlwell, situate as aforesaid.

“ Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend George Rodney, Bishop of Wakefield (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Batley, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Andrew, Purlwell, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The District Chapelry of Saint Andrew, Purlwell.’

“ And with the like consent of the said

George Rodney, Bishop of Wakefield (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Andrew, Purlwell, situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid, and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

“ We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

“ The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“ The District Chapelry of Saint Andrew, Purlwell, being:—All that part of the parish of Batley, in the county of York and in the diocese of Wakefield, which is bounded upon the north-east by the new parish of Saint Thomas, Batley, upon the east by the new parish of Saint Paul, Hanging Heaton, upon the South by the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Batley Carr, upon the west by the new parish of Christ Church, Staincliffe, all in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the north-west and upon the north, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Christ Church, Staincliffe, from the said parish of Batley, at the junction of Dark Lane with Norfolk Street, and extending thence eastward along the middle of Norfolk Street for a distance of fifteen chains and a quarter or thereabouts to its junction with Purlwell Lane, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of Purlwell Lane for a distance of nine chains or thereabouts to its junction with Wellington Street, and extending thence first north-eastward and then eastward along the middle of Wellington Street for a distance of eighteen chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Field Lane upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Batley from the said new parish of Saint Thomas, Batley.”

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Wakefield.
