

have respectively signified to us their desire that the patronage of the three said benefices of Smallburgh, Catfield, and the Fourth Part of the rectory of Felmingham may be rearranged by way of exchange in the manner which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

“ And whereas we have made due inquiry and calculation as to the circumstances and relative value of the said three benefices and of the patronage thereof respectively and we do hereby certify to Your Majesty in Council that the circumstances and present values of the said three benefices are as set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed.

“ Now therefore, with the consent of the said Bertram, Bishop of Norwich, acting as such Bishop (in testimony whereof the said Bishop has affixed to this scheme his hand and episcopal seal) and with the consent of the said Charles Maurice Jickling (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Smallburgh and the church thereof shall be assigned and transferred from the said Bertram, Bishop of Norwich, and from his successors in the same Bishoprick, and shall become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time and at all times be exercised by the said Charles Maurice Jickling, his heirs and assigns for ever, and that in exchange for the same the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of the Fourth Part of the rectory of Felmingham and the church thereof and the said moiety of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Catfield and the church thereof, which is now vested in the said Charles Maurice Jickling as aforesaid, shall in like manner and upon and from the same date be assigned and transferred from the said Charles Maurice Jickling and shall become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time and at all times be exercised by the said Bertram, Bishop of Norwich, and his successors in the same Bishoprick for ever.

“ And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

“ The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing scheme has reference.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of November, 1911.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her late Majesty Queen

Victoria, chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the nineteenth day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for
