

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the respective Registrars of the said dioceses of Oxford and Lincoln.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of November, 1911.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifth-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the nineteenth day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John, Fishponds, situate in the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Fishponds, in the diocese of Bristol.

“Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint John, Fishponds, situate as aforesaid.

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend George Forrest, Bishop of Bristol (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of Fishponds, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint John, Fishponds, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The District Chapelry of Saint John, Fishponds.’

“And with the like consent of the said George Forrest, Bishop of Bristol (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint John, Fishponds, situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

“We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal Wisdom, shall seem meet.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The District Chapelry of Saint John, Fishponds, being:—All that part of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Fishponds, in the diocese of Bristol, which is bounded upon the east partly by the parish of Downend and partly by the district parish of Trinity, Kingswood, upon the south by the new parish of Two Mile Hill, upon the south-west by the parish of Saint George, upon the north-west partly by the consolidated chapelry of Saint Thomas the Apostle, Eastville, and partly by the consolidated chapelry of All Saints, Fishponds, all in the said diocese, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the north, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said consolidated chapelry of All Saints, Fishponds, from the said new parish of Fishponds at the centre of the bridge which carries Hockeys-lane across the Bristol and Birmingham Line of the Midland Railway, and extending thence eastward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of sixty-six chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Fishponds from the said parish of Downend.”

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Bristol.
