

At the Court of Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of November, 1911.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the nineteenth day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, in the words and figures following, (that is to say):—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint James, Cross Roads cum Lees, situate within the new parish (sometime consolidated chapelry district) of Ingrow with Hainworth, in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Ingrow with Hainworth, of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Michael, Haworth, and of the parish of Bingley, both in the said county and diocese, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parishes and parish.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said new parish of Ingrow with Hainworth, of the said new parish of Saint Michael, Haworth, and of the said parish of Bingley, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint James, Cross Roads cum Lees, situate as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend William Boyd, Bishop of Ripon, as such Bishop, and also as the patron in right of his See as well of the vicarage of the said new parish of Ingrow with Hainworth as of the vicarage of the said parish of Bingley, and with the consent of the Reverend Herbert Gresford Jones, Clerk in Holy Orders, vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of Saint Peter, Bradford, in the said county and diocese, as the patron of the rectory of the said new parish of Saint Michael, Haworth (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Ingrow with Hainworth, of the said new parish of Saint Michael, Haworth, and of the said parish of Bingley, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint James, Cross Roads cum Lees, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint James, Cross Roads cum Lees.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal Wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The consolidated chapelry of Saint James, Cross Roads cum Lees, comprising:—All those contiguous portions of the new parish (sometime consolidated chapelry district), of Ingrow with Hainworth, of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Michael, Haworth, and of the parish of Bingley, all in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon, which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing at or near the point where the River Worth is joined by the stream called Bridgehouse Beck, where the boundaries of the new parish of Oakworth, in the said county and diocese, the said new parish of Saint Michael, Haworth, and the said new parish of Ingrow with Hainworth all meet, and extending thence generally southward along the middle of Bridgehouse Beck (thereby following in part the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Michael, Haworth, from the said new parish of Ingrow with Hainworth) for a distance of thirty-nine chains and a half or thereabouts to a point opposite to the middle of the street which leads into the road called Mill Hey at its junction with Victoria Road, and extending thence south-eastward to and along the middle of such street for a distance of two chains and a quarter or thereabouts to its junction with Mill Hey and Victoria Road, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of Victoria Road for a distance of five chains and a quarter or thereabouts to its junction with Cliff Street, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of Cliff Street for a distance of nine chains and a quarter or thereabouts to its junction with Hebden Road, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of Hebden Road for a distance of six chains or thereabouts to its junction with Dean Street and with the footpath leading into the road running from Haworth to Flappit Spring, and extending thence first south-eastward, then north-eastward and then southward along the middle of the said footpath for a distance of seven chains and three-quarters or thereabouts to its junction with the last-mentioned road, and extending thence first north-eastward and then south-eastward along the middle of such road (thereby following in part the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Michael, Haworth, from an isolated portion of the said parish of Bingley) for a distance of sixty-seven chains or thereabouts to its junction at Flappit Spring with Halifax Road
