

Civil Service Commission.

December 1, 1911.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice, in pursuance of Clause 9 of His late Majesty's Order in Council of 10th January, 1910; that, with the consent of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, they have prescribed that on and after the 1st day of June, 1912, the following fees shall be paid by the undermentioned classes of persons attending examinations, viz:—

Candidates attending an examination for Commissions in the Regular Army or for admission to the Royal Military Academy or the Royal Military College held by or under the directions of the Civil Service Commissioners in London, £2.

Candidates attending an examination for Commissions in the Regular Army or for admission to the Royal Military Academy or the Royal Military College held by or under the directions of the Civil Service Commissioners elsewhere than in London, £3.

Provided that a deduction of £1 from the above-mentioned fees may, at the discretion of the Civil Service Commissioners be made in the case of any candidate who when applying to the Civil Service Commissioners to be admitted to any of the above-mentioned examinations states, on the prescribed form and by the prescribed date, that he wishes on the particular occasion to be examined only in one or both of the obligatory subjects numbered v. and vi. in the list of those prescribed for candidates for admission to the Royal Military Academy in the Regulations issued with Army Order No. 323 dated 1st November, 1911, or only in the subject numbered iii. in the above-mentioned list, or in the corresponding list of subjects prescribed for admission to the Royal Military College.

 This notice supersedes that dated 23rd September, 1893.

Civil Service Commission,

December 1, 1911.
