By THE KING-EMPEROR.
A ROYAL PROCLAMATION

For making known within His Imperial Majesty's Indian Dominions the Celebration of the Solemnity of the Coronation of His Imperial Majesty.

GEORGE R.I.

WHEREAS by Our Royal Proclamations bearing date the nineteenth day of July and the seventh day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and ten, in the First Year of Our Reign, We did publish and declare Our Royal intention, by the Favour and Blessing of Almighty God, to celebrate the Solemnity of Our Royal Coronation upon the twenty-second day of June, one thousand nine hundred and eleven;

And whereas, by the Favour and Blessing of Almighty God, We were enabled to celebrate the said Solemnity upon Thursday, the twenty-second day of June last;

And whereas, by Our Royal Proclamation bearing date the twenty-second day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eleven, in the First Year of Our

Reign, We did declare that it was Our wish and desire Ourselves to make known to all Our Loving Subjects within Our Indian Dominions that the said Solemnity had so been celebrated, and to call to Our Presence Our Governors, Lieutenant-Governors, and other of Our Officers, the Princes, Chiefs, and Nobles of the Native States under Our Protection, and the Representatives of all the Provinces of Our Indian Empire:

Now We do, by this Our Royal Proclamation, make announcement thereof, and extend to all Our Officers, and to all Princes, Chiefs and Peoples now at Delhi assembled Our Royal and Imperial greeting, and assure them of the deep affection with which We regard Our Indian Empire, the welfare and prosperity of which are and ever will be Our constant concern.

Given at Our Court at Delhi, this twelfth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eleven, and in the Second Year of Our Reign.

GOD SAVE THE KING-EMPEROR.
