

His Royal Highness Prince Arthur of Connaught, K.G., G.C.V.O., His Grace the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, G.C.V.O., the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and the Lord President of the Council, or any two of them, in His Majesty's absence from the United Kingdom, to summon and hold on His Majesty's behalf His Privy Council, and to signify thereat His Majesty's approval of any matter or thing to which His Majesty's approval in Council is required:

And whereas there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 18th day of December, 1911, in the words following, viz.:—

“Whereas by section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being, or having been, an officer, seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

“And whereas prior to the 1st April, 1911, the Staff of Your Majesty's Naval Prisons at the Cape and Sydney were paid continuous extra pay at the rates payable in the Fleet for general work, in view of the high cost of living:

“We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction similar payments of extra pay to the Staff of the Detention Quarters at the Cape and Sydney from the 1st April, 1911, the date on which the Detention system came into force at those places.

“The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal.”

Now, therefore, His Royal Highness Prince Arthur of Connaught, His Grace the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and the Lord President of the Council, being authorized thereto by His Majesty's said Commission, have taken the said Memorial into consideration, and do hereby, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, on His Majesty's behalf, approve of what is therein proposed, and do, on His Majesty's behalf, order that the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty do give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 17th day of January, 1912.

PRESENT,

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS PRINCE ARTHUR

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased by His Commission, dated the 10th day of November, 1911, to nominate and appoint

His Royal Highness Prince Arthur of Connaught, K.G., G.C.V.O., His Grace the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, G.C.V.O., the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and the Lord President of the Council, or any two of them, in His Majesty's absence from the United Kingdom, to summon and hold on His Majesty's behalf His Privy Council, and to signify thereat His Majesty's approval of any matter or thing to which His Majesty's approval in Council is required:

And whereas by the Burial Act, 1855, it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, should or should not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, might seem fit:

And whereas an Order in Council has been made directing the discontinuance of burials, with certain exceptions, in the parish churchyard of Saint Giles, Holme, in the county of Huntingdon, from the time specified in such Order:

And whereas it seems fit to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyard be postponed:
