

fied that such extension of tenure is desirable in the interests of education, religion, learning, or research. Such permission may be renewed from time to time by the same authority, and in the same manner, for periods of not more than five years.

(4) The Council may require of any Fellow as a condition of the extension of the tenure of his Fellowship under sections (2) and (3) of this Statute, that he shall reside in the University during such parts of each academic year as they shall determine, and that he shall deliver such lectures or perform such other duties as they may prescribe, with or without further remuneration, or they may excuse him from any such duties or residence.

(5) Nevertheless, no one elected to a Fellowship under the provisions of Statute XXIII of these Statutes, nor any Fellow, so long as he holds qualifying University or College office, shall vacate his Fellowship by reason of lapse of time. For the purpose of this section of this Statute a Professor, Reader, Public Orator, Librarian or Registrary of the University shall be deemed to be holding qualifying University office, and a Vice Master, President, Dean, Tutor, Lecturer, Senior Bursar, Junior Bursar or Steward of the College shall be deemed to be holding qualifying College office. A Fellow who has held qualifying College office for twenty years shall be entitled to hold his Fellowship for life.

(6) No Fellow who, by these Statutes is entitled to retain his Fellowship in virtue of any College or University office, shall forfeit that privilege by vacating any such office, provided that he shall actually accept and hold some other of such offices or be re-elected to his previous office within a time not later than the end of the next succeeding Term.

(7) No Professor or Reader shall be deemed to be a Professor or Reader of the University within the meaning of this Statute unless by the rules which govern his office he be liable to residence and duties within the University.

(8) The Council may appoint Assistant Lecturers who shall not thereby be entitled to hold their Fellowships beyond the expiration of the limited tenure under sections (1) (2) or (3) of this Statute.

(9) A Fellow of the College shall vacate his Fellowship if he shall become Master or Fellow of any other College.

(10) In order to maintain due discipline within the College, the President, Deans and Tutors or such other College Officers as the Council may from time to time determine shall be required to reside within the College during such portion being not less than two-thirds of each Term as the Council shall determine, and shall hold office only so long as they shall so reside, except where such residence shall, in the opinion of the Council, have been prevented by sickness or other inevitable cause.

(11) The Council shall make such provision as may from time to time seem to them expedient for the residence in College of College Officers or Fellows acting as their deputies during vacations.

(12) The Council shall have the power of requiring any College Officer to reside in College during full Term and during such part of the Long Vacation as they may think necessary for the due maintenance of discipline.

(13) Every College Officer or Fellow who is fulfilling the duty of residence in College under this Statute shall sleep in College at least five nights in each week. Provided always that a house communicating with the College and approved by the Council shall, for the purposes of this section, be deemed to be within the College.

(14) Every Fellow who shall be instituted or admitted to any benefice in the patronage of the College of the clear annual value of not less than four hundred pounds (after deducting rates, taxes and all other legal charges) shall vacate his Fellowship at the expiration of one year after his presentation to such benefice, or in the event of its being reduced below the sum of four hundred pounds per annum, by the pension paid to a previous incumbent at the expiration of one year after the falling in of the pension, unless the Fellow shall in the interval have resigned the benefice.

(15) If a doubt arise as to the clear annual value above-mentioned the same shall be determined by the Council after sufficient inquiry into the circumstances of the same on the application of the Fellow who is about to be so instituted or admitted, and shall be stated in a College Order. Any Fellow of the College may at his discretion call for such a determination of the annual value of a benefice when it is vacant. The annual value determined as aforesaid shall be deemed to be final and conclusive for the purposes of these Statutes until the next succeeding vacancy of the benefice.

(16) Every benefice to which the patron is bound to present a Fellow of the College shall, as regards the vacation of Fellowships be deemed to be in the patronage of the College.

Given under the Common Seal of our said College this second day of February, one thousand nine hundred and L. S. twelve.

Privy Council Office, February 13, 1912.

THE GOVERNING BODY OF SHREWSBURY SCHOOL having, on the 18th day of January, 1912, in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by The Public Schools Act, 1868, and of every other power enabling them in that behalf, made a Scheme in the terms appended hereto for amending the original Scheme (approved by Order in Council of the 12th day of February, 1876), for the removal of the said School from its former site:

The said Scheme has this day been laid before His Majesty in Council, and is hereby published in the London Gazette in accordance with the provisions in that behalf contained in the said Act.

And notice is hereby given, that any person, body of persons, or body corporate, authorized in that behalf by the said Act, may within two months after the publication of this notification, petition His Majesty in Council to withhold His approval from the whole or any part of the said Scheme.

SCHEME for Amending and Altering the Scheme approved by Order in Council of the 12th day of February, 1876, for the removal of Shrewsbury School from its actual site.

Whereas by the Public Schools Act, 1868, 31 and 32 Vict., c. 118, it is inter alia enacted as follows:—

Section 25. Any scheme authorized to be made under this Act may contain all powers
