

and be heard with reference to the said application.

As witness my hand this eighteenth day of March, 1912, at the Office of the Local Government Board, Whitehall, London.

Walter T. Jerred,
Assistant Secretary.

MOTOR CAR ACT, 1903.

COUNTY OF LONDON.

Whereas by subsection (1) of section 9 of the Motor Car Act, 1903, it is enacted that, within any limits or place referred to in regulations made by the Local Government Board with a view to the safety of the public, on the application of the local authority of the area in which the limits or place are situate, a person shall not drive a motor car at a speed exceeding ten miles per hour:

And whereas the London County Council have made application to the Local Government Board for a regulation to be made in pursuance of the said subsection putting the above-mentioned provisions of that subsection in force within the limits comprising the following road or parts of roads at Swiss Cottage, within the Metropolitan Borough of Hampstead, that is to say:—

So much of Finchley Road as extends for a distance of 270 yards from a point 125 yards south of the south side of Belsize Road to a point near the centre of the New College Building;

So much of Upper Avenue Road as extends from its junction with Finchley Road aforesaid to a point 100 yards north of the north side of Adelaide Road;

So much of College Crescent as extends from its junction with Finchley Road aforesaid to the north side of Buckland Crescent; and

So much of Belsize Road as extends for a distance of 50 yards from its junction with Finchley Road aforesaid.

And whereas notice of the said application and of the time and manner in which objections should be made to any such regulation appeared in the London Gazette of the 3rd day of October, 1911, and in the Hampstead and Highgate Express of the 7th day of October, 1911:

And whereas certain objections to the making of any regulation in pursuance of the said provisions have been received by the Local Government Board, and it is expedient that further inquiry should be made in the matter of the said application:

Notice is hereby given, that R. C. Maxwell, Esquire, Barrister-at-Law, one of the Inspectors of the Local Government Board, will attend at the County Hall, Spring Gardens, S.W., on Wednesday, the 3rd day of April, 1912, at a quarter-past 10 o'clock in the forenoon, to hold a Local Inquiry into the subject-matter of the said application.

And notice is hereby further given, that any person interested may attend at such Inquiry and be heard with reference to the said application.

As witness my hand, this eighteenth day of March, 1912, at the Office of the Local Government Board, Whitehall, London.

Walter T. Jerred,
Assistant Secretary.
