

Saint Matthias, Preston, Brighton, situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal Wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Matthias, Preston, Brighton, being:—All that part of the parish of Preston, in the county of Sussex and in the diocese of Chichester, which is bounded upon the north by the parish of Patcham, in the said county and diocese, upon the east by the middle of the Brighton and Lewes Line of the London, Brighton and South Coast Railway, upon the south by the new parish of Saint Martin, Brighton, upon the south-west by the new parish of Saint Augustine, Preston, Brighton, both in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Augustine, Preston, Brighton, from the said parish of Preston, at the junction of the road called Preston Drove with Osborne Road, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of Osborne Road for a distance of twenty chains and a quarter or thereabouts to a point opposite to the north-eastern side of the passage between the houses known as Number 149, and Number 151, Osborne Road, and extending thence north-westward to and along the north-eastern side of the said passage and along the wall or fence in continuation thereof for a distance of one chain and three-quarters or thereabouts to its north-western end and extending thence northward along the wall or fence forming the western boundary of the space at the back of the said house and premises known as Number 151, Osborne Road, for a distance of seven yards or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of Preston from the said parish of Patcham."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts: And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chichester.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of March, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fifteenth day of February, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken out of the new parish (sometime chapelry district) of Saint Philip, Sheffield, in the county of York and in the diocese of York.

"Whereas we are satisfied that the said new parish of Saint Philip, Sheffield, is a cure wherein or in parts whereof the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof, and it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said new parish of Saint Philip, Sheffield, which is hereinafter mentioned and described, should be constituted a separate district in the manner which is hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purpose of Divine Worship.

"And whereas in pursuance of the power and authority given by an Order of the High Court of Chancery dated the first day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four confirming a scheme for the future application of the income of the trust property of the Twelve Capital Burgesses and Commonalty of the town and parish of Sheffield, in the said county of York, and of an Order of the Board of Charity Commissioners for England and Wales dated the fourth day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four in partial variation of the scheme established by the said first mentioned Order, the said Burgesses and Commonalty have proposed to appropriate the sum of two hundred pounds per annum out of that part of the income of their trust property which is applicable to ecclesiastical purposes in and towards the endowment of the district herein proposed to be constituted.

"And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, have signified by a Writing bearing date the first day of February in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve under our common seal our approval of and consent to the proposed endowment of the said proposed district.
