

tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Harlington.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the said Edith Georgina Warren-Vernon, being the person whose consent as patron is required by the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts, and of the Act of the first and second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and six (in testimony of which consent she has signed and sealed this scheme), with the consents of the said Mary Elizabeth Towneley and Sir Henry Arthur White (in testimony whereof they have signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said Frederic Henry, Bishop of Ely (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Harlington shall be transferred to the said Frederic Henry, Bishop of Ely, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Frederic Henry, Bishop of Ely, and his successors, Bishops of Ely, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

"And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Ely.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of March, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the fourteenth day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property in the parish of Enford, in the county of Wilts, now vested in us.

"Whereas under and by virtue of an indenture bearing date the first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, and made or expressed to be made between the Reverend Robert Martyn Ashe of the first part, Gabriel Goldney of the second part, Edmund Hyde and John Loxley of the third part, Edward Gaby of the fourth part, and us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the fifth part, the tithe rent charges of the commuted amount of four pounds four shillings and two pence per annum issuing and payable out of certain lands situate at East Chisenbury, in the said parish, and more particularly set forth in the schedule to the said indenture, became and are now vested in us.

"And whereas under and by virtue of a certain other indenture bearing date the twenty-ninth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, and made or expressed to be made between Sir Thomas Frazer Grove, Baronet, of the first part, George Troyte Bullock and Richard Phelips of the second part, Julia Elizabeth Chafyn Grove, spinster, of the third part, and us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the fourth part, certain lands, allotments and hereditaments situate at East Chisenbury aforesaid, in the said parish of Enford, containing together two hundred acres one rood and thirty-nine perches or thereabouts (the particulars whereof are set out in the first schedule to the said indenture, and which said lands, allotments and hereditaments are for the better identification thereof delineated in the plan annexed to the same indenture and thereon coloured round with pink) with their appurtenances, became and are now vested in us.

"And whereas under and by virtue of a certain other indenture bearing date the sixth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, and made or expressed to be made between James Hale, Thomas Hale and Jane Keel, widow, of the one part, and us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the other part, a certain piece or parcel of land, containing two perches or thereabouts, situate at East Chisenbury aforesaid, in the said parish, and set out in the first schedule to the said indenture (which said piece or parcel of land is for the better identification thereof delineated and coloured green on the plan drawn on the said indenture) with its appurtenances became and is now vested in us.

"And whereas the said tithe rent charges, lands, allotments, and hereditaments are not subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant but are now in our possession, but some portions thereof on account of their character or situation are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same or of the proceeds thereof for the ultimate improvement
