The KING has been pleased to approve of the Albert Medal of the Second Class being conferred upon Mr. Edward Bell, in the employ of the Canadian Copper Company, of Copper Cliff, Ontario, Canada, for gallantry in saving life as detailed below:—

On the 11th July, 1911, a disastrous forest fire broke out in the neighbourhood of the town of South Porcupine, Ontario, destroying the town and a mining camp, and the perilous position of the inhabitants was aggravated by a sudden tornado.

A party, including the manager of the Dome Mines and his family and two employees of the mining company, managed with great difficulty to pass through the smoke and flames to some water barrels, but then collapsed from exhaustion, and were unable to use the water so as to keep their clothes from catching fire from the showers of sparks.

Bell, notwithstanding the dense smoke, which had incapacitated the party, went to their rescue, and stood by them for nearly two hours, damping their clothes, and by this and other means preventing further injury by fire. By his courageous action he was instrumental in saving the lives of seven persons.
