NATIONAL INSURANCE ACT, 1911.

Table of Reserve Values for Male Insured Persons.

Whereas, by section 55 of the National Insurance Act, 1911, the Insurance Commissioners are required and empowered to cause tables to be prepared showing, in cases in which such provision is necessary, the capital sums (in that Act and herein referred to as "Reserve Values") which it is necessary to provide in respect of members entering into insurance at ages over the age of 16 to meet the estimated loss, if any, arising through the acceptance by an Approved Society of such persons as members upon the terms and conditions as regards contributions and benefits prescribed by that Act; and whereas by section 83 of that Act it is provided that the Joint Committee constituted thereunder shall exercise and perform such powers and duties of the several bodies of Commissioners under that Act as may be provided by regulations to be made by the Treasury; and whereas by the regulations made by the Treasury thereunder it is provided that the Joint Committee alone shall exercise the power of making under sub-section 1 of section 55 of the Act tables showing reserve values; Now, therefore, the Joint Committee in pursuance of the powers above recited and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf have caused to be prepared the tables hereto appended, showing in cases in which such provision is necessary the reserve values which it is necessary to provide in Great Britain or in Ireland in respect of male employed contributors entering into insurance, within one year after the commencement of the Act, at the ages shown in the first column of that table, and in respect of male voluntary contributors entering into insurance, within six months after the commencement of the Act, at the ages less than the age of forty-five shown in the first column of that table, and that table shall have effect accordingly.

NATIONAL INSURANCE ACT, 1911.

Voluntary Rate for Male Insured Persons entering into Insurance on or after the 15th day of January, 1913.

Whereas, by sub-section (1) of section 5 of the National Insurance Act, 1911, the Insurance Commissioners are required and empowered to cause a Table to be prepared showing the rate of contributions of voluntary contributors entering into insurance after six months from the commencement of the Act appropriate to their age (in that Act called the voluntary rate); and whereas, by section 83 of that Act, it is provided that the Joint Committee constituted thereunder shall exercise and perform such powers and duties of the several bodies of Commissioners under that Act as may be provided by regulations to be made by the Treasury; and whereas, by the regulations made by the Treasury thereunder, it is provided that the Joint Committee alone shall exercise the power of making, under sub-section (1) of section 5 of the Act, the Tables in accordance with which the voluntary rate is to be ascertained; now, therefore, the Joint Committee, in pursuance of the powers above recited and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, have caused to be prepared the Table hereto appended showing in the second column thereof the rates of contributions of a male voluntary contributor entering into insurance in Great Britain or in Ireland at the age shown in the corresponding line of the first column of that table after six months after the commencement of the Act, and the rate shown in the appropriate line of the said Table shall accordingly be the voluntary rate applicable to any such person.

PATENTS AND DESIGNS ACT, 1907.

Restoration of Lapsed Patent under Section 20.

Notice is hereby given, that an Order was made on the 30th day of April, 1912, restoring the letters patent granted to Arthur Musker, William Clark Mitchell, and Benjamin Wrightson Head for an invention for "improvements in ingot or casting extracting apparatus," numbered 9312 of 1906, and bearing date the 20th day of April, 1906.

W. TEMPLE FRANKS,
Comptroller-General.

BY an Order of the Local Government Board, dated the 16th day of April, 1912, and which comes into operation on the 28th day of May, 1912, section 92 of the Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1907, will from such last mentioned date be in force in the Contributory Place of Mortehoe, within the rural district of Barnstaple, in the county of Devon, subject to the condition and adaptation that the said section in its application to the Contributory Place and in relation to the exercise of the powers and to the discharge of the duties of the Local Authority under that section should have effect as if the following words were added to and formed part of the section:—

"Nothing in this section or in any by-laws made thereunder shall be deemed or taken to prejudice, diminish, alter, or affect the estates, rights, titles, privileges, powers or authorities of any persons in, over, or under the foreshore or sands within or in front of the district or the immediate approaches thereto, or any part thereof respectively."

And by the same Order it was directed that the expenses incurred or payable by the Local Authority in the execution of the said section, except so far as those expenses might relate to their establishment or officers should be special expenses within the meaning of the Public Health Act, 1875, chargeable upon the Contributory Place.

Dated this 27th day of April, 1912.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Order of the High Court of Justice, dated the 16th day of April, 1912, confirming the reduction of the capital of the above named Company from £1,000,000 to £799,285, and the Minute approved by the Court, showing with respect to the share capital of the Company as altered the several particulars required by the above Act, were registered by the Registrar of Companies on the 25th day of April, 1912. The said Minute is in the words and figures following:—

“The capital of the House Property and Investment Company Limited and Reduced henceforth is £799,285, consisting of £468,335 fully paid stock and 13,238 shares of £25 each, instead of the original capital of £1,000,000, divided into £669,050 fully paid stock and 13,238 shares of £25 each. At the time of the registration of this Minute the whole of the said £468,335 stock has been, and is to be deemed to be, fully paid up. Of the said 13,238 shares, 28, numbered 20,333 and 20,334, 20,617 to 20,625 inclusive, 21,530 to 21,533 inclusive, 23,381 to 23,385 inclusive, and 25,865 to 25,872 inclusive were issued, but no sum has been paid up in respect thereof, and the same have since been forfeited and not re-issued. The remaining 13,210 shares, numbered 26,791 to 40,000, are unissued, and nothing is to be deemed to be paid up thereon.”

Dated the 2nd day of May, 1912.

CHAS. HULBERT, Master.

In the High Court of Justice.—Chancery Division.

Mr. Justice Neville. 1911, A. 694.

In the Matter of the AUTOMOBILES DE LUXE Limited.

Between Michael Paget Baxter, Plaintiff, and the Automobiles de Luxe Limited (by original action), Defendants, and between William James Nicholls and Ernest Dent Vaisey, Plaintiffs, and the Automobiles de Luxe Limited, and Algernon Henry Peter Strickland, and Henry Hoare, and Caroline Todd Buck, the Wife of Thomas Charles Buck (added by Order dated 19th July, 1911), (by Order dated 14th June, 1911), Defendants.

TAKE notice, that a Judgment has been pronounced in this action, which has been instituted to ascertain who are the holders of the Company's Debentures, to realise the property charged thereby, and to divide the proceeds amongst the parties entitled, and by such judgment the inquiries and accounts necessary for the purpose are directed. The material parts of the judgment are as follows:—

(i) An account of what is due to the Plaintiffs under or by virtue of the said Debenture dated 6th April 1906.

(ii) An inquiry of what the property comprised in and charged by the said Debenture consists and in whom the same is vested.

(iii) An inquiry what other incumbrances affect the property comprised in or charged by the said Debenture and any and what parts thereof.

(iv) An account of what is due to the Defendants Algernon Henry Peter Strickland and Henry Hoare under or by virtue of the said Debenture dated 5th December, 1907. The further consideration of this action is adjourned with liberty to apply.

It appearing that the assets of the above named Company are insufficient to pay off prior incumbrances there will be no assets available for distribution among the holders of the £10 seven per cent. Debentures issued by the Defendant Company.

This notice is given pursuant to the direction of the Registrar.—Dated 1st May, 1912.
