

those contiguous portions of the said parish of Great Grimsby and of the said parish of Clee, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Augustine, Grimsby, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Augustine, Grimsby.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal Wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The consolidated chapelry of Saint Augustine, Grimsby, comprising:—All those contiguous portions of the parish of Great Grimsby, and of the parish of Clee, both in the county of Lincoln and in the diocese of Lincoln, which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the new parish of All Saints, Grimsby, in the said county and diocese, from the said parish of Great Grimsby at the centre of the bridge which carries the East Lincolnshire line of the Great Northern Railway across Wintringham Road, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of Wintringham Road for a distance of sixteen chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Ainslie Street, and extending thence southward along the middle of Ainslie Street for a distance of fourteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with Welholme Road and with the road called Park Drive, and extending thence first southward, then south-westward and then again southward along the middle of Park Drive for a distance of twenty-eight chains or thereabouts to its junction with Weelsby Road and with the road called Park Avenue, and extending thence southward along the middle of Park Avenue and along a line in continuation thereof for a distance in all of thirty-three chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of Great Grimsby from the said parish of Clee, and extending thence first southward, then westward, then again southward, then again westward and then again southward along such boundary for a distance of twenty-one chains or thereabouts to the point where it meets the boundary which divides the parish of Scartho, in the said county and diocese, from the said parish of Clee, and extending thence first eastward and then in various directions (generally south-eastward) along the last mentioned boundary for a distance of one mile and twenty-four chains or thereabouts to the point where it crosses the middle of the said East Lincolnshire line of the Great Northern Railway, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said line of railway (thereby crossing the boundary of the said parish of Clee and following in part the boundary which divides the said new parish of All Saints, Grimsby, from the said parish of Great Grimsby) for a distance of one mile and seventy-three chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries such line of railway across Wintringham Road, at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lincoln.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 14th day of May, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section 26 of the Pluralities Act, 1838, after reciting that, "Whereas in some instances tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may, in some instances, with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "That when with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the province, or when the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place or district within the diocese of such Archbishop, or the diocese of such Bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church, and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes: And the said Archbishop or Bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such Bishop to be transmitted to the said Archbishop for his consideration) describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rentcharges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said Archbishop may approve, and the said Archbishop shall,
