FRIDAY, 17 MAY, 1912.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 14th day of May, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the sixteenth day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called ‘the said benefice’) of Radwell, in the county of Hertford and in the diocese of Saint Albans.

“ Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Radwell is vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in Francis Pym, of Hasell Hall, Sandy, in the county of Bedford, Esquire.

“ And whereas the said Francis Pym is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Radwell now vested in him as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Saint Albans.

“ And whereas the Right Reverend Edgar, now Bishop of Saint Albans, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness, and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said Edgar, Bishop of Saint Albans, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

“ And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Radwell which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Radwell aforesaid.

“ Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Francis Pym (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Edgar, Bishop of Saint Albans (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Radwell now vested in him the said Francis Pym as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Edgar, Bishop of Saint Albans, and his successors in the same bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Edgar, Bishop of Saint Albans, and by his successors in the same bishoprick for ever.

“ And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Saint Albans.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 14th day of May, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighteenth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property situate in the parishes of Tottenham and Wood Green, in the county of Middlesex.

“ Whereas under and by virtue of the several deeds particulars whereof are set forth in the schedule hereunder written the lands and hereditaments situate in the said parishes and particularly described or referred to in the said deeds and Schedule became, with their appurtenances, and are now vested in us in fee simple for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

“ And whereas none of the said lands and hereditaments are subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant, but are now in our possession, but some portions thereof, on account of their character or situation, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

“ And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same or of the proceeds thereof for the ultimate improvement of our common fund it is expedient that the said lands and hereditaments or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands and hereditaments or in any part or parts thereof in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

“ Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments, in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Acts all or any of the said lands and hereditaments so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances and all our estate, right, title and interest therein or in any part or parts thereof unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time as occasion may arise in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent charges, tenements or hereditaments, or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some Government or Parliamentary stock or other public securities in England.

“ And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament.

“ The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

Dates of the several Deeds.	Names and Descriptions of the Parties.	Brief Description of the Property comprised in or affected by the several Deeds.
24 April 1903.	Mary Ann Ross, the wife of William Ross; Florence Batting, the wife of Charles Batting, and Laura Ellen Ross the wife of George Ross of the first part; Stanley Hicks of the second part and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the third part.	Two plots of land having a total frontage to Albert Road, Wood Green, of about 55 feet, coloured pink on the plan drawn on the deed.
24 April 1903.	Frederick James Kerr of the first part, Stanley Hicks of the second part and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the third part.	Three plots of land each having a frontage to Albert Road, Wood Green, of about 20 feet, coloured pink on the plan drawn on the deed.
27 March 1905.	Charles Thomas Orford of the one part and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the other part.	Land containing 13a. 1r. 35p. or thereabouts in the parish of Tottenham, and also rights of way.
22 November 1906.	Joseph Wood of the one part and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the other part.	Land containing 2a. 3r. 0p. or thereabouts in the parish of Wood Green.
2 December 1909.	The Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the one part and the Urban District Council of Wood Green of the other part.	Land at Wood Green coloured green and hatched green on the plan marked A drawn on the deed and land, also at Wood Green, coloured sienna on the plan marked B drawn thereon.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of

Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighteenth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen

Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the Prebend of Welton Beckhall, in the Cathedral Church of Lincoln, and now vested in us.

"Whereas under an Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of another Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and by virtue of an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council, made under the provisions of the said Acts, and bearing date the sixteenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, and duly published in the London Gazette on the nineteenth day of the same month, all lands, tithes, and other hereditaments whatsoever (except any right of patronage) then belonging to the said Prebend became absolutely vested in us, for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments are now in our possession, and are not subject to any outstanding lease or grant; but some portions thereof, on account of their character or situation, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments so in our possession as aforesaid, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands, tithes, and hereditaments, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said late Majesty's reign, all or any of the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments heretofore belonging to the said Prebend, and so in our possession as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable; it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale, from time to time, as occasion may arise, in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or hereditaments, or of some estate or interest therein, convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the proceeds in some Government or Parliamentary stock or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the Diocese of Lincoln.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 14th day of May, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourteenth day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint George, South Moor, situate within the new parish (sometime district) of Holmside, in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Holmside and of the new parish (sometime district) of Beamish, in the said county and diocese, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parishes.

“ And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said new parish of Holmside and of the said new parish of Beamish should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint George, South Moor, situate as aforesaid.

“ Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Handley Carr Glyn, Bishop of Durham, as such Bishop, and also as the alternate patron, in right of his See, of the vicarage of the said new parish of Holmside, as well as of the vicarage of the said new parish of Beamish, and with the consent of the Right Honourable Herbert Henry Asquith, the First Lord of Your Majesty's Treasury, acting on behalf of Your Majesty as the other alternate patron of the said vicarage of the new parish of Holmside, as well as of the said vicarage of the new parish of Beamish (in testimony whereof they, the said consenting parties, have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Holmside and of the said new parish of Beamish, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint George, South Moor, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘ The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint George, South Moor.’

“ We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal Wisdom, shall seem meet.

“ The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“ The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint George, South Moor, comprising:—All those contiguous portions of the new parish (sometime district) of Holmside, and of the new parish (sometime district) of Beamish, both in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham, which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing at the point at the southern end of the roadway leading from Burnopfield Farm into the road leading from Wagtail Lane, past West Ousterley House, towards Oxhill, where the boundary of the civil parish of South Moor meets the boundary which divides the said new parish of Holmside from the said new parish of Beamish, and extending thence north-westward along the last-mentioned boundary (thereby following the said civil parish boundary) for a distance of thirty-one chains or thereabouts to the point where it crosses the middle of the Hedley Tramway, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said tramway for a distance of twenty-three chains and a quarter or thereabouts to a point opposite to the middle of the road running past the northern ends of Fairford Terrace, Tempest Terrace and Standish Terrace, and extending thence south-eastward first to and along the middle of such road and then in a straight line in continuation thereof (thereby crossing the boundary which divides the said new parish of Beamish from the said new parish of Holmside, and also crossing the Old Wagonway and the Morrison Pit Wagonway) for a distance in all of forty-eight chains and a half or thereabouts to a point in the middle of Shieldrow Lane upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Beamish from the said new parish of Holmside, and extending thence south-westward along such boundary (thereby following the middle of Shieldrow Lane) for a distance of six chains and a half or thereabouts to the junction of Shieldrow Lane with the road leading to Quakinghouse Cottages, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of such road for a distance of six chains and a quarter or thereabouts to the point where it is crossed by the Morrison Pit Wagonway, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said wagonway for a distance of twenty-five chains and a half or thereabouts to a point opposite to the fence forming the western boundary of Langley Moor Plantation, and extending thence south-westward to and along the said fence for a distance of sixty-two chains and a half or thereabouts to its southern end on the northern side of the road leading to Langley Moor Farm, and extending thence south-westward in a straight line across such road for a distance of fifteen yards or thereabouts to the point on the south side of the said road where the boundary of the said civil parish of South Moor diverges south-eastward from that road, and extending thence first south-eastward and then in various directions along the said civil parish boundary (thereby following in one part the eastern and southern sides of Wagtail Lane, and in another part the eastern side of the road leading from Wagtail Lane past West Ousterley House towards Oxhill) for a distance of three miles and thirty-one chains or thereabouts to the point at the southern end of the roadway leading from Burnopfield Farm into the last-mentioned road where the said civil parish boundary meets the boundary which divides the said new parish of Holmside from the said new parish of Beamish, at which point the said imaginary line commenced.”

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Durham.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 14th day of May, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Michael and All Angels, Claughton, situate within the new parish (sometime consolidated chapelry) of Christ Church, Claughton-cum-Grange, in the county of Chester and in the diocese of Chester.

“Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Christ Church, Claughton-cum-Grange, and of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Tranmere, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parishes.

“And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said new parish of Christ Church, Claughton-cum-Grange, and of the said new parish of Tranmere, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Michael and All Angels, Claughton, situate as aforesaid.

“Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Francis John, Bishop of Chester, as such Bishop, with the consents of Edward Darbyshire, of number 2, Bedwardine Road, Upper Norwood, London, S.E., merchant, of Thomas Worthington, of number 18, Lee Road, Blackheath, London, S.E., civil servant, of John Charles Bazett Annesley, of number 25, Silverdale Road, Birkenhead, cotton broker, of Thomas Sargent Floyd, of number 16, Devonshire Road, Birkenhead, doctor of medicine and one of Your Majesty's Justices of the Peace, and of the Reverend Alfred Henry Rhodes, of Thornton Hall, Childer Thornton, Chester, clerk in holy orders, as the patrons of the vicarage of the said new parish of Christ Church, Claughton-cum-

Grange, and with the consent of the Reverend William Henry Thomas Norman Rainey, Rector or Incumbent of the rectory of the parish of Bebington, in the said county and diocese of Chester, and, as such Rector or Incumbent, the patron of the vicarage of the said new parish of Tranmere (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Christ Church, Claughton-cum-Grange, and of the said new parish of Tranmere, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united, and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Michael and All Angels, Claughton, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Michael and All Angels, Claughton.’

“We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal Wisdom shall seem meet.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Michael and All Angels, Claughton, comprising:—

“1. All that portion of the new parish (sometime consolidated chapelry) of Christ Church, Claughton-cum-Grange, in the county of Chester and in the diocese of Chester, which is bounded upon the east and upon the south by the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Tranmere, in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the west and upon the north, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Tranmere, from the said new parish of Christ Church, Claughton-cum-Grange, at the junction of Carlton Road with Woodchurch Road, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of Woodchurch Road for a distance of seventeen chains or thereabouts to its junction with Brattan Road, and extending thence eastward along the middle of Brattan Road for a distance of ten chains or thereabouts to its junction with Borough Road upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Christ Church, Claughton-cum-Grange, from the said new parish of Tranmere.

“2. And also all those two portions of the said new parish of Tranmere which are contiguous to the above described portion of the said new parish of Christ Church, Claughton-cum-Grange, and are situate to the west of the middle of Borough Road.”

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chester.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 14th day of May, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council, bearing date the 5th day of July, 1911, certain arrangements as regards the circuits of the judges were approved:

And whereas it is expedient that the said Order be amended on account of certain alterations which have been made in the arrangements for the transaction of civil business in the county of Lancashire:

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council is pleased to order and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

The Commission days for the several places on the respective circuits other than the northern for the assizes to be hereafter holden shall, as far as may be practicable and the business to be done may allow, be fixed by the judges in manner heretofore accustomed in accordance with the scheme set out in Schedule I hereto. The Commission days for the assizes to be holden on the northern circuit and the sittings for the transaction of civil business at Liverpool and Manchester shall be fixed in manner heretofore accustomed in accordance with the scheme set out in Schedule II hereto. In fixing such Commission days—

(a) The order of towns may be changed on any circuit when it is desirable to prevent the assizes at any town being holden contemporaneously with special local events or for any other special reason, and

(b) The dates of the Commission days named in the Schedule for any town may be altered so as to provide for anticipated business, or the anticipated absence of business, but no alteration of the dates of such Commission days which will diminish the number of judges in town, at any period of the sittings shall be made without the consent of the Lord Chief Justice of England.

(c) It shall be lawful for the Lord Chief Justice from time to time, with the sanction of the Lord Chancellor, to direct that civil as well as criminal business shall be taken at any assize town on the autumn circuit in addition to those at which it is provided by the Schedule to this Order that civil as well as criminal business shall be taken.

The Schedules to this Order shall be substituted for the Schedule to the Order in Council relating to circuits dated the 5th of July, 1911, and the said Order in Council shall take effect subject to the substitution made by this Order, and any copy thereof hereafter printed may be printed with the substitution made by this Order.

Almeric FitzRoy.

NOTE.—Where Sunday falls on a date different from that which is noted in the Schedule, Commission days will have to be altered accordingly.

THE LONDON GAZETTE, 17 MAY, 1912.

SCHEDULE No. 2.
NORTHERN CIRCUIT.

CIVIL BUSINESS.

The sittings on the northern circuit for civil business at Liverpool and Manchester shall be as follows:—

Business shall commence at Liverpool on the third Tuesday in Michaelmas sittings.

Business shall commence at Manchester on the sixth Tuesday in Michaelmas sittings.

Hilary Sittings.

Business shall commence at Liverpool on the third Tuesday in Hilary sittings.

Business shall commence at Manchester on the sixth Tuesday in Hilary sittings.

Business shall commence at Liverpool on the first Tuesday in Easter sittings.

Business shall commence at Manchester on the fourth Tuesday in Easter sittings.

Trinity Sittings.

Business shall commence at Liverpool on June 11th or on the first Monday after the Whitsun Bank Holiday, whichever shall be later.

Business shall commence at Manchester three weeks after the commencement of business at Liverpool.

If the day for commencement of business at Liverpool or Manchester falls on a Sunday business shall commence on the day following.

All the Sittings.

The business at Liverpool shall extend to the day preceding the commencement of business at Manchester, if necessary for the trial of all causes entered three days before the commencement of business at Liverpool, and such further causes as may be subsequently entered for trial at these sittings with the leave of the judge. Such leave shall be given liberally in all proper cases.

The business at Manchester shall extend until all causes entered three days before the commencement of business, and all causes subsequently entered for trial at those sittings with the leave of the judge shall have been tried. Leave to enter subsequently shall be given liberally in all proper cases.

There shall be no resumed sittings at Liverpool or Manchester unless the judge shall so direct.

Civil business will be taken as hitherto on the winter and summer circuits at Appleby, Carlisle and Lancaster, but not on the autumn circuit at Carlisle and Lancaster unless directed under clause (c) of this Order.

CRIMINAL BUSINESS.—Assizes.

Criminal business will be taken at Appleby on the winter and summer circuit, at Carlisle and Lancaster on the winter, summer and autumn circuits and at Liverpool and Manchester on each of the four circuits.

At each assizes the Commission day for Liverpool and Manchester respectively shall be the day preceding the commencement of the business unless such day falls on a Sunday, in which case the Commission day shall be on the Saturday preceding.

On the winter and summer circuits the Commission day for Appleby shall be 12 days, the Commission day for Carlisle shall be 10 days, and the Commission day for Lancaster shall be 6 days before the Commission day for Liverpool. On the autumn circuit the Commission day for Carlisle shall be 9 days and the Commission day for Lancaster shall be 4 days before the Commission day for Liverpool.

The judges shall not, unless it is unavoidable, sit at either Liverpool or Manchester while assizes are being held at Appleby, Carlisle or Lancaster.

The judge holding a criminal assize at Liverpool and Manchester shall, when not required for criminal business, assist as heretofore in the trial of civil actions whenever the sittings for civil business are being held during the time the judge taking criminal business is at Liverpool or Manchester.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 14th day of May, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order made by the late King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council, on the 19th March, 1908, His Majesty was pleased to order (amongst other things) that, where any property belonging to or held for the benefit of a unit of Volunteers or Yeomanry mentioned in the first column of the Schedule to that Order was vested in or held by any Trustees other than the Commanding Officer of such unit, those Trustees should, until otherwise directed by Order in Council under section 29 of the Territorial and Reserve Forces Act, 1907, be appointed in regard to the property so vested in or held by them to be special Trustees, to the exclusion of the Association, and should continue to hold such property in trust for the corresponding unit of the Territorial Force in like manner in all respects as they previously held it for the unit of the Volunteers or Yeomanry, and that the corresponding unit should, notwithstanding any trust, limitation, or condition affecting any such property, continue entitled to the benefit thereof in like manner as the unit was entitled thereto before it became a unit of the Territorial Force:

And whereas by virtue of the above-recited provisions of the said Order in Council the Trustees named in the first column of the Schedule to this Order hold the property described and set opposite to their names in the second column of that Schedule in trust for the unit of the Territorial Force mentioned in the third column of that Schedule for the purposes and subject to the limitations mentioned in the deed (if any) referred to in the fourth column of that Schedule, and it is expedient that such property should be transferred from those Trustees to the County Association mentioned in the fifth column of that Schedule:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that as from the date of this Order the said property shall in each case be by virtue of this Order transferred from the said Trustees to and vested in the said County Association subject to any charges thereon and to any liabilities in or towards the discharge of which the said property is properly applicable, and shall be held by that Association in like manner in all respects as it was held by the said Trustees for the benefit of the said unit of the Territorial Force or for such other purposes as the Association with the consent of the said unit (to be ascertained in manner prescribed by regulations of the Army Council) shall direct but so that the interest of any beneficiary other than the said unit or the unit of the Volunteers or Yeomanry with which it corresponds shall not without the consent of such beneficiary be affected.
