And whereas the Lord Bishop of Gloucester, and the patrons and Incumbents of the respective benefices have consented in writing to the said scheme;

And whereas the said scheme hath been transmitted by the said Bishop of Worcester to the said Archbishop for his consideration;

And whereas the said Archbishop, being satisfied with the said scheme, hath certified the same, and the consents aforesaid to His Majesty in Council by his report dated the 12th day of July, 1911, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We the undersigned Randall Thomas Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury do hereby represent to Your Majesty in Council

“That the Right Reverend Huyshe Bishop of Worcester has represented unto Us (amongst other things)

“That there is in the county of Worcester and his diocese of Worcester the rectory of Bredon with Norton and Cutsdean the parish whereof contains according to the census of one thousand nine hundred and one a population of 960.

“That there is also in the county and diocese of Gloucester the vicarage of Temple Guyting the parish whereof contains according to the census of one thousand nine hundred and one a population of 437.

“That a certain detached portion of the said parish of Bredon with Norton and Cutsdean, namely, the hamlet or chapelry of Cutsdean lies to the north of Temple Guyting and adjacent thereto and is upwards of eleven miles distant from the parish church of Cutsdean.

“That it appears to the said Lord Bishop that the said hamlet or chapelry of Cutsdean may under the provisions of the Pluralities Acts 1838 and 1887 be advantageously separated from the said parish of Bredon with Norton and Cutsdean and united to the said parish of Temple Guyting.

“That pursuant to the directions contained in the said Acts the said Lord Bishop has drawn up a scheme in writing describing the mode in
