PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty-three, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the fourth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty-three, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme with respect to the rural deanery of Christchurch and the rural deanery of Ringwood, both in the archdeaconry of Winchester and in the diocese of Winchester.

“Whereas the said rural deanery of Ringwood was formed out of the said rural deanery of Christchurch by an Order of His late Majesty King Edward the Seventh in Council bearing date the twenty-sixth day of September, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eight, and published in the London Gazette on the sixth day of the following month.

“And whereas it has been represented to us by the Right Reverend Edward Stuart, Bishop of Winchester, that the separation of the said rural deanery of Ringwood from the said rural deanery of Christchurch has been found inconvenient in practice and that a reunion of the said rural deaneries of Christchurch and Ringwood is desirable and should be carried into effect, and we are of opinion that the same may properly be carried into effect.

“Now therefore, with the consent of the said Edward Stuart, Bishop of Winchester (in testimony whereof he has set his hand and episcopal seal to this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that as from the day on which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be published in the London Gazette and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the said rural deaneries of Christchurch and Ringwood shall be reunited to form one rural deanery within the said archdeaconry of Winchester and that such rural deanery shall be called ‘The Rural Deanery of Christchurch.’

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other matter or thing with respect to the matters aforesaid or any of them by virtue of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Winchester.
