ORDER OF THE BOARD OF
AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES.

(DATED 26TH JULY 1912.)

The Board of Agriculture and Fisheries, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in them under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 to 1911, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. Cattle, sheep, goats and swine shall not be moved into the showyard of the Welsh National Agricultural Society's Show, to be held at Swansea, in the county of Glamorgan, on the 5th and 6th days of August, if they have been in England at any time since the 30th day of June last.

2. Cattle, sheep, goats and swine shall not be moved into such showyard unless they are accompanied by a declaration signed by the owner or exhibitor thereof stating that the animals, which shall be specified in the declaration, have not been in England, except as hereinafter provided, at any time since the 30th day of June last. The declaration shall be produced on entry of the animals into the showyard to a person appointed for the purpose by the Society and be retained by him.

3. For the purposes of this Order cattle, sheep, goats or swine which have been moved through a part of England by railway shall not by reason of such movement be deemed to have been in England.

In witness whereof the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries have hereunto set their Official Seal this twentieth day of July, nineteen hundred and twelve.
