At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of October, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the first day of August, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called ‘the said benefice’) of Terwick, in the county of Sussex and in the diocese of Chichester.

“Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Terwick is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession free from incumbrances in Charles Thomas Lane, of Dangstein, Petersfield, in the county of Sussex, Esquire, one of Your Majesty's Justices of the Peace.

“And whereas the said Charles Thomas Lane is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Terwick now vested in him as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in him the said Charles Thomas Lane and Minna Lane his wife to hold as joint tenants for the term of their joint lives and after the decease of one of them should be transferred to and be vested in the survivor of them for the term of his or her natural life and after the death of such survivor should be transferred
