

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of October, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 19th day of August, 1912, in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, and other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas we are of opinion that, in view of the conditions under which the Flag Officer Commanding the Royal Naval War College at Portsmouth is employed, it is desirable that he should be granted an allowance of two hundred pounds a year in lieu of the Naval Servants to whose services he is entitled:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction payment accordingly, with effect from the date on which the Naval Servants are reduced:

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of October, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 14th day of August, 1912, in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, and other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions as

are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas we consider that the custom of charging the sum of two shillings and sixpence a day on account of subsistence against the pay of Officers of Your Majesty's Royal Marines sent to Hospital from Head Quarters bears hardly upon these Officers:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction free subsistence for the first forty-two days being granted to a Royal Marine Officer sent to Hospital or other Sick Quarters.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of October, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 28th day of August, 1912, in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, and other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas we are of opinion that the instructional duties carried out by the Naval Instructors in charge of the School work in the Boys' Training Establishments in H.M.S. "Impregnable" and at Shotley are of such a nature as to merit the grant of an allowance in addition to the full pay of the Officers in question:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction a tuition allowance of £100 per annum being paid to each of these Officers:

"We beg leave further to recommend that, in the event of a Naval Instructor being appointed to supervise the School work of the Youths under training at the Royal Naval Barracks at Devonport, we may be authorized, with the consent of the Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury, to sanction pay-
