

'At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of October, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 13th day of September, 1912, in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas by section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an officer, seaman, or marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas by an Order in Council of His late Majesty bearing date the fifteenth day of June, 1901, provision was made for the payment of an allowance of 7d. a day to the Senior Chief or other Armourer in Torpedo Schools in consideration of the responsibility devolving upon them:

"And whereas the Armourer ratings in the Torpedo Schools have been replaced by Electricians:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction the continuance of this allowance of 7d. a day to the Senior Chief or other Electrician in each Torpedo School:

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Almeric FitzRoy.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 7th day of October, 1912, in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas by section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas by an Order in Council dated the 6th February, 1882, provision was made for the grant to the Cook employed on board Your Majesty's Admiralty Yacht "Enchantress," of pay at the rate of 3s. a day and a cooking allowance at the rate of 1s. 6d. a day:

"And whereas we consider it desirable that these emoluments should be revised and that the status of the man so employed should be determined:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction the rate of pay of future occupants of the post being fixed at 6s. 6d. a day on appointment, and 7s. a day after five years' service, inclusive of all allowances, their rank to be that of Chief Petty Officer:

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of October, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1855, it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, should or should not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, might seem fit:

And whereas an Order in Council dated the 3rd day of October, 1911, was made directing the discontinuance of burials with certain exceptions in the Parish Churchyard of Saint Giles, Holme, in the County of Huntingdon, after the 31st day of December, 1911:

And whereas by an Order in Council of the 17th day of January, 1912, the time appointed for the discontinuance of burials in the said Parish Churchyard was postponed to the 31st day of March, 1912:

And whereas by an Order in Council of the 28th day of March, 1912, the time appointed for the discontinuance of burials in the said Parish Churchyard was further postponed to the 30th day of June, 1912:

And whereas by an Order in Council of the
