MOTOR CAR ACT, 1903.

COUNTY OF THE PARTS OF KESTEVEN.

Whereas by sub-section (1) of section 9 of the Motor Car Act, 1903, it is enacted that within any limits or place referred to in regulations made by the Local Government Board with a view to the safety of the public, on the application of the local authority of the area in which the limits or place are situate, a person shall not drive a motor car at a speed exceeding ten miles per hour:

Notice is hereby given, that the County Council of the Parts of Kesteven have made application to the Local Government Board for a regulation to be made in pursuance of the said sub-section putting the above-mentioned provisions of that subsection in force within the limits comprising so much of the main road from Grantham to Lincoln and Sleaford passing through the village of Syston as extends from a point 200 yards south of the junction with the said main road of the southern approach road to Syston Church to a point opposite the gate of Mr. Stanhope's farm situate 100 yards north of the junction with the said main road of the northern approach road to Syston Church:

Notice is hereby further given, that objections to the making of any such regulation may be sent in writing to the Local Government Board at their offices at Whitehall, London, on or before the second day of January, 1913.

A copy of any such objection should be sent at the same time by the objector to the County Council of the Parts of Kesteven, Sleaford.

Dated this eleventh day of November, 1912.

*J. S. Davy,
Assistant Secretary.*

Local Government Board.

MOTOR CAR ACT, 1903.

COUNTY OF SURREY.

Whereas by sub-section (1) of section 9 of the Motor Car Act, 1903, it is enacted that within any limits or place referred to in regulations made by the Local Government Board with a view to the safety of the public, on the application of the local authority of the area in which the limits or place are situate, a person shall not drive a motor car at a speed exceeding ten miles per hour:

And whereas the county council of Surrey have made applications to the Local Government Board for regulations to be made in pursuance of the said sub-section putting the above-mentioned provisions of that subsection in force within the limits comprising the following roads or parts of roads in the Parishes of Betchworth and Buckland within the Rural District of Reigate, that is to say:—

So much of Buckland Road, Betchworth, as extends from a point opposite the western extremity of the Vicarage to a point 100 yards beyond Buckland Knoll;

So much of the road through the village of Buckland as extends from a point opposite the western boundary of the premises known as Broome Perrow to a point 100 yards east of the junction of the road with Buckland Lane; and

So much of the road through the village of Betchworth as extends from its junction with Buckland Road aforesaid at Broome Cottage to a point 50 yards beyond the premises known as Fryleigh.

And whereas notice of the said applications and of the time and manner in which objections should be made to any such regulation appeared in the London Gazette of the 8th day of December, 1911, and in the Surrey Mirror of the 8th day of December, 1911:

And whereas certain objections to the making of any regulation in pursuance of the said provisions have been received by the Local Government Board, and it is expedient that further inquiry should be made in the matter of the said applications:

Notice is hereby given, that R. C. Maxwell, Esquire, Barrister-at-Law, one of the Inspectors of the Local Government Board, will attend at the School, Betchworth, on Friday, the 29th day of November, 1912, at half-past 2 o'clock in the afternoon, to hold a Local Inquiry into the subject-matter of the said applications:

And notice is hereby further given, that any person interested may attend at such Inquiry and be heard with reference to the said applications.

As witness my hand this thirteenth day of November, 1912, at the Office of the Local Government Board, Whitehall, London.

Walter T. Jerred,

Assistant Secretary.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this seventh day of November, one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

Whereas the benefice of Saint Antholin, Nunhead, in the county of Surrey and diocese of Southwark (hereinafter called the said benefice), was avoided on the twenty-second day of January last past by the retirement under the provisions of the Incumbents' Resignation Acts, 1871 and 1887, of the Reverend Andrew Augustus Wild Drew (hereinafter called the retired Incumbent), and there was assigned to the retired Incumbent a yearly pension under the said Resignation Acts of ninety-four pounds (hereinafter called the said pension), now we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in accordance with our Regulations, dated the thirtieth day of May, 1907, relating to grants in aid of pensions to retired Incumbents (hereinafter called the said Regulations), do hereby grant out of our common fund, first to the Incumbent of the said benefice and his successors Incumbents thereof the yearly sum of twenty pounds, and, secondly, to the retired Incumbent the yearly sum of thirty pounds, each of the said yearly sums so granted to continue payable so long only as the said pension shall continue payable out of the revenues of the said benefice, and to be subject as hereinafter mentioned, and to commence and be computed from the said twenty-second day of January last past, and to be paid by equal quarterly payments on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in every year, subject nevertheless to cesser, determination, withdrawal, suspension or reduction as a grant made in accordance with the said Regulations, and to all other the provisions and conditions contained in the said Regulations and applicable to a grant made in accordance therewith.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this seventh day of November, one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

Whereas the benefice of Ryton-upon-Dunsmoor, in the county of Warwick and diocese of Worcester (hereinafter called the said benefice), was avoided on the nineteenth day of October last past by the retirement under the provisions of the Incumbents' Resignation Acts, 1871 and 1887, of the Reverend Alfred Starkey (hereinafter called the retired Incumbent), and there was assigned to the retired Incumbent a yearly pension under the said Resignation Acts of ninety-four pounds six shillings and eight pence (hereinafter called the said pension), now we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in accordance with our Regulations dated the thirtieth day of May, 1907, relating to grants in aid of pensions to retired Incumbents (hereinafter called the said Regulations), do hereby grant out of our common fund, first, to the Incumbent of the said benefice and his successors Incumbents thereof the yearly sum of twenty pounds, and, secondly, to the retired Incumbent the yearly sum of thirty pounds, each of the said yearly sums so granted to continue payable so long only as the said pension shall continue payable out of the revenues of the said benefice, and to be subject as hereinafter mentioned and to commence and be computed from the said nineteenth day of October last past and to be paid by equal quarterly payments on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in every year, subject nevertheless to cesser, determination, withdrawal, suspension or reduction as a grant made in accordance with the said Regulations and to all other the provisions and conditions contained in the said Regulations and applicable to a grant made in accordance therewith.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this seventh day of November, one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction consisting of a piece of land comprising one acre and thirty-three perches or thereabouts, which has been permanently secured by deed dated the second day of September, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, as a site for a parsonage or house of residence for the consolidated chapelry and benefice (hereinafter called "the Benefice") of Saint George, Brinsworth, in the county of York, and in the Diocese of York, and in consideration also of a further benefaction of a capital sum of two hundred and eighty-five pounds sterling which has been paid to us in favour of the same benefice, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said benefice of Saint George, Brinsworth, to meet the aforesaid benefactions one capital sum of five hundred and twenty-five pounds to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said benefice according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of two pounds and ten shillings per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Saint George, Brinsworth.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this seventh day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

(L. S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty, Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Little Coates, in the county of Lincoln and in the diocese of Lincoln, and to his successors Incumbents of the same vicarage one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and six pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the twelfth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, and to be receivable in equal quarterly portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient in our opinion to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage of Little Coates in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this seventh day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction consisting of a piece of land, comprising two roods or thereabouts, which has been permanently secured by deed dated the sixteenth day of August, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, as a site for a parsonage or house of residence for the vicarage of Marlton, in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter, and in consideration also of a further benefaction of a capital sum of five hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the same vicarage, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Marlton to meet the aforesaid benefactions one capital sum of five hundred and eighty pounds, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of two pounds and ten shillings per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Marlton.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this seventh day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

(L. S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of a capital sum of two hundred pounds sterling which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Saint Paul, Paddington, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same vicarage and to his successors a yearly sum of six pounds, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Saint Paul, Paddington, to meet such benefaction one other capital sum of two hundred pounds, in respect of which so long as the same capital sum or any part thereof shall remain in our hands, there shall be paid by us to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage one other yearly sum of six pounds, or such part thereof as shall be proportionate to any balance of the same capital sum which shall so remain in our hands, the above-mentioned yearly payments to commence as from the thirty-first day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, and to be receivable in equal quarterly portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and on the first day of November, in each and every year.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this seventh day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

(L. S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of a certain house and premises, which have been permanently secured by deed dated the third day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, as a parsonage or house of residence for the vicarage of Saint Paul, Tavistock, in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Saint Paul, Tavistock, to meet such benefaction, one capital sum of one thousand pounds, in respect of which so long as the same capital sum or any part thereof shall remain in our hands, there shall be paid by us to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage one yearly sum of thirty pounds or such part thereof as shall be proportionate to any balance of the same capital sum which shall so remain in our hands; the above-mentioned yearly payment to commence

as from the third day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, and to be receivable in equal quarterly portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and on the first day of November, in each and every year.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this seventh day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

(L. S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of a capital sum of one hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the Rectory of Trefnant, in the county of Denbigh, and in the diocese of Saint Asaph, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said rectory of Trefnant to meet such benefaction one other capital sum of one hundred pounds to be applicable towards defraying the cost of improving the parsonage or house of residence of the said rectory according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of two pounds and ten shillings per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said rectory of Trefnant.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this seventh day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

(L. S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the benefice of Walberswick with Blythburgh, in the county of Suffolk and in the Diocese of Norwich, and to his successors Incumbents of the same benefice, one temporary yearly sum or stipend of fifty-six pounds, such temporary yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the twenty-third day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, and to be receivable in equal quarterly portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year so long as the same shall continue payable: Provided always, that the temporary yearly sum or stipend hereby granted shall cease upon a transfer (as defined in the Benefices Act, 1898) of the right of patronage of the said benefice of Walberswick with Blythburgh.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, this seventh day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of a capital sum of one thousand pounds sterling which has been paid to us in favour of the benefice of West Rounton with East Rounton, in the county of York and in the Diocese of York, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same benefice and to his successors a yearly sum of thirty pounds, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant out of our common fund to the said benefice of West Rounton with East Rounton to meet such benefaction one other capital sum of one thousand pounds, in respect of which, so long as the same capital sum or any part thereof shall remain in our hands, there shall be paid by us to the Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice one other yearly sum of thirty pounds or such part thereof as shall be proportionate to any balance of the same capital sum which shall so remain in our hands, the above-mentioned yearly payments to commence as from the third day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, and to be receivable in equal quarterly portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and on the first day of November in each and every year.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, this seventh day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

In Parliament.—Session 1913.

HARROW AND STANMORE GAS.

(Consolidation and Conversion of Capital; Additional Capital; Borrowing Powers; Erection of new Gasworks; Manufacture and Storage of Gas and Residual Products; Confirmation of existing Bridge and New Bridges, with Rails and Works over and Rights of Passage over Footpath from Gas Works-lane; Acquisition and User of Lands; Easements; Incidental Provisions; Breaking Up of Streets; Benefit Fund and Co-partnership Scheme; Transfer of Stock of Employees on Death; General Meetings; Voting; Powers of Directors; Stand-by Clause; Qualification of Directors and Auditors; Remuneration of Secretary; Closing of Registers; Special Purposes and Reserve Funds; Prepayment Meters; Rates, Rents and Charges; Regulation and Inspection and Removal of Pipes and Fittings; Supply in Bulk; Patent Rights; Entry on Premises; Application of Funds; Incorporation, Amendment or Repeal of Acts, &c.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session by the Harrow and Stanmore Gas Company (hereinafter called "the Company") for an Act for all or some of the following and other purposes (that is to say):—

1. To provide for the consolidation or conversion of the existing and authorized ordinary, guaranteed and preference capital of the Company into ordinary and preference stock of one or more classes of stock respectively, or into other classes of stock of such nominal amounts as the intended Act may prescribe, and to provide for the creation and issue of new stock for the purposes of such consolidation or conversion, and to enable and require the holders of existing ordinary, guaranteed and preference shares (including trustees and other persons acting in a fiduciary capacity) to accept such consolidated or converted stock in exchange for such shares, with or without an addition in cash, or to pay cash, or to empower the Company to pay cash for the purpose of securing equality of exchange or otherwise in respect of or in relation to or for facilitating such consolidation or conversion.

2. To provide for the fixing and defining of the respective rights of voting and other rights, privileges and priorities, or to attach to and the rates of dividends to be paid on such consolidated or converted ordinary and preference capital or any class thereof or any other capital to be raised under the intended Act, and if thought fit to make provision for the determination of dividends to be paid on the capital of the Company in accordance with or in relation to the price charged for gas by the Company within their limits of supply, or any part or parts thereof, and to alter, vary, amend or repeal any existing provisions relating to any such matters.

3. To provide for the issue of any authorized and unissued capital of the Company by the creation and issue of ordinary and preference stock of the same classes as the stock to be issued to holders of existing shares in the Company under the authority of the intended Act, or by the creation of other classes of stock, with such rights and privileges or in such other manner as may be prescribed or provided for by the intended Act.

4. To declare, define and regulate the capital and borrowing powers of the Company, and to enable the Company to apply their corporate funds and revenues for all or any of the purposes of the intended Act, and to empower the Company to raise additional capital for those and other purposes of their undertaking, either by increase of any class or classes of consolidated or converted ordinary or preference stock or by the creation of new stock, either ordinary, guaranteed or preferential, and by borrowing upon mortgage or by the creation and issue of debenture stock, or by any one or more of those methods, and to attach to any such new stock, mortgages or debenture stock such preference or priority of interests or dividends, rights of voting or other rights or advantages as the intended Act may define, and to prescribe, regulate or provide for the dividends or interest to be paid on the same.

5. To authorize the Company to construct, erect, maintain, alter, enlarge, extend, improve, renew or discontinue gasworks and works for the conversion, manufacture, utilisation and distribution of materials used in and about or resulting from the manufacture of gas and of residual and manufactured products, matters and things, and to manufacture and store gas and to manufacture, produce, store, convert, utilise, buy, sell and dispose of coke, coal, patent fuel, tar, lime, pitch, asphaltum, ammoniacal liquor, oil and all other residual and manufactured products, matters and things upon the following lands (that is to say):—

A piece of land belonging or reputed to belong to the Company situate in the parish and urban district of Harrow-on-the-Hill, in the county of Middlesex, lying to the west of and near to the Company's existing gasworks, which piece of land contains by admeasurement five acres or thereabouts, and is bounded on the north by land belonging or reputed to belong to William Greenhill Chapman and Percy Henry Michod, and in the occupation of Anthony Hall, on the south-west by the South Harrow Branch of the Metropolitan Railway, on the south-east by a lane and footpath leading from Eastcote-lane to Gas Works-lane, and on the east by land belonging or reputed to belong to Thomas Meadows Clutterbuck, and in the occupation of William Herbert Mortlock.

6. To empower the Company, in the parish and urban district of Harrow-on-the-Hill, in the county of Middlesex, to make and maintain the works hereinafter described (that is to say):—

Work No. 1.—A bridge with approaches thereto over the public footpath leading from Gas Works-lane to Eastcote-lane, commencing at a point 30 feet or thereabouts measured in a south-westerly direction from the south-west abutment of the Company's existing bridge over the said footpath, and terminating at a point 40 feet or thereabouts measured in a south-easterly direction from the said point of commencement.

Work No. 2.—A bridge with approaches thereto for vehicular and pedestrian traffic of the Company over the said public footpath, commencing at a point 84 feet or thereabouts measured in a south-westerly direction from the said south-west abutment of the Company's existing bridge over the said footpath, and terminating at a point 40 feet or thereabouts measured in a south-easterly direction from the said last-mentioned point of commencement.

7. To empower the Company to construct and maintain such temporary and other works and all such approaches, arches, walls, embankments, roadways, footways, piers, abutments, surface drains and other works and conveniences as may be necessary or expedient in connection with the construction of the intended works, and to stop up, divert, alter, break up, raise, sink and otherwise interfere with either temporarily or permanently for the purposes of such works all such roads, highways, footpaths, watercourses, drains, sewers, gas and water mains and pipes, electric, telegraphic and telephonic wires, pipes and apparatus which it may be necessary or convenient to stop up, divert, alter, break up, raise, sink or interfere with for those purposes or any other purposes of the intended Act, and to extinguish all public and private rights of way over or across any of the lands shown on the plans hereinafter mentioned.

8. To sanction and confirm the construction of, and to empower the Company to maintain as part of their undertaking the said existing bridge with approaches over the said footpath leading from Gas Works-lane to Eastcote-lane, at a point 75 feet or thereabouts from the junction of the said footpath with the said Gas Works-lane, and to authorize the Company to alter, improve, enlarge, extend, renew, reconstruct or discontinue the said bridge and approaches, and to sanction and confirm the expenditure of capital by the Company in the construction of the said bridge and works.

9. To authorize the Company to lay down, construct, maintain and use on and over the said intended works, and in and across and over the lands shown on the plans hereinafter referred to all such rails, carriers, transporters, gantries, cranes, lifts, tips, pipes, mains, wires, roadways, footways and other works, conveniences, appliances and apparatus as may be convenient or necessary for the purposes of conveying, transporting or transmitting coal, coke, merchandise and other articles between the Metropolitan Railway and lands of the Company, or to, from or between any part or parts of the lands or undertaking of the Company, and for securing access or improved and better means of access to, from and between any part or parts of their said lands or undertaking.

10. To authorize deviations, laterally and vertically, from the lines and levels of the intended works, as shown on the plans and sections to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned, to such extent as may be authorized by the intended Act.

11. To authorize the Company to pass into, upon, over and along, and to use by their officers, servants, workmen and others, either on foot or with horses, carts, carriages and other vehicles, trucks, appliances and apparatus, the said footpath leading from Gas Works-lane to Eastcote-lane, in the said parish of Harrow-on-the-Hill, so far as such footpath lies between or is bounded by or adjacent to lands or property belonging to the Company, and without making any payment in respect of such passage or user, and to empower the Company to acquire compulsorily or by agreement any right or easement of such passage over or along or such user of the said footpath, or such other rights in respect thereof as may be prescribed by or provided for by the intended Act.

12. To empower the Company for all or any of the purposes of the said intended works or other purposes of the intended Act or of their undertaking to purchase or acquire by compulsion or agreement, and to hold, sell and let lands, houses or buildings and easements therein in the before-mentioned parish, and to acquire and hold other lands for the general purposes of their undertaking.

13. To make provision with respect to the qualification of directors of the Company, the determination by the directors of the remuneration of the secretary of the Company, the election, appointment, retirement and number of auditors of the Company, and their qualifications and tenure of office, as to the dates and places of holding and method of calling general meetings of the Company, the closing of registers, and to provide, if thought fit, for such meetings to be held half-yearly, and to vary alter, amend or repeal any existing provisions relating to any such matters.

14. To empower the Company to form and to make special provisions with respect to reserve and special purposes and other funds, and to repeal, amend and vary any existing provisions relating to such matters, and to provide for the application of the funds so formed, and for the investment of the moneys forming such funds and the income arising from such investments for the addition to any such fund of any moneys or securities forming part of any insurance or other fund of the Company, and for the application of the excess profits of the Company.

15. To authorize the Company or the directors of the Company to establish a fund or funds for the purposes of securing pensions, retiring or other allowances, payments, gratuities and other benefits to and to the widows, families or dependents of the servants of or persons employed by the Company to make provision with respect to the terms and conditions upon and subject to which such servants and persons may become and continue members of any such fund to declare that such allowances, payments or other benefits shall not be assignable or chargeable with debts or liabilities to enable the Company to apply their funds for the purposes of and in aid of any such funds, and to make agreements and arrangements with insurance companies and others for securing any such pensions and other allowances, payments, gratuities and benefits as aforesaid to provide for the investment of any moneys forming part of any such fund, and to apply to any such fund with or without modification or variation all or any of the provisions of the Friendly Societies Act, 1896.

16. To empower the Company to prepare, put in force, modify and vary, a scheme or schemes of co-partnership for all or any of their employees for securing their participation in the profits of the Company's undertaking to provide for the constitution and appointment of Trustees for carrying out any such scheme, and to provide for the issue of stock of the Company to such employees on such terms in such manner and at such price as the intended Act may prescribe.

17. To provide for the transfer of stocks and bonuses or other sums of money of such employees on their deaths or otherwise, and to confirm or empower the Company to make or to provide for regulations with respect to the nomination by such employees of persons as owners of or entitled to transfers of such stock, or to receive any such bonuses or moneys on such deaths, and to make provisions and confer all necessary powers as to such nominations, transfer and receipt, and as to the persons, terms, conditions and circumstances to whom and under which such stock, bonuses or moneys may be handed over, and as to the powers of the directors in relation to any such matter.

18. To make provision as to tolls, rates and charges, and for better securing the payment of the same when owing to the Company, and for the prepayment thereof in certain cases, and if thought fit to vary existing rates and charges, to empower the Company to refuse to supply persons in debt to the Company, to require consumers to give notice in writing to the Company before connecting or disconnecting any gas meter or before quitting premises supplied with gas or discontinuing the consumption of gas, to make provision as to the form and method of service and authentication of notices given by or on behalf of the Company and the recovery of penalties imposed by the Acts relating to the Company or any of them.

19. To authorize the Company to acquire, hold, use and exercise patent rights or licences and authorities under letters patent for the use of inventions and apparatus relative to the production, storing, measuring, distribution and supply of gas and residual products therefrom.

20. To empower the Company to supply gas in bulk or otherwise to local and other authorities, companies and persons within or beyond the limits of supply of the Company, and to enter into and fulfil contracts and agreements with reference to such supply.

21. To make provision with respect to the supply by the Company of gas to persons or premises having a separate supply of gas or electricity, and as to the terms and conditions of such supply, and if deemed expedient to relieve the Company from obligation to supply such persons and premises, and in certain other cases and circumstances to be provided for or prescribed by the intended Act.

22. To make provision for prescribing and regulating the position in which consumers, meters and pipes and fittings connected therewith shall be placed, and to empower the Company to inspect, prescribe and regulate such pipes and fittings, and to prohibit improper or insufficient pipes and fittings.

23. To empower the Company and their officers and servants where any person entering into occupation of premises previously supplied with gas by the Company does not require or take or is not entitled to such supply to enter upon such premises and remove any apparatus, fittings and appliances belonging to the Company in such premises.

24. To vary and extinguish all rights and privileges which would in any manner impede or interfere with the objects of the intended Act, and to confer other rights and privileges.

25. To incorporate with the intended Act or make applicable to the Company and to their undertaking with or without modification or variation all or any of the provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts, the Companies Clauses Acts, 1845 to 1889, the Gasworks Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1871, and the Acts amending the same respectively.

26. To alter, amend, extend or repeal so far as may be necessary for the purposes of the intended Act all or any of the provisions of the several Acts hereinbefore referred to, and of the Harrow Gas Act, 1873, and any other Act or Order relating to the Company.

And notice is hereby given, that on or before the 30th day of November instant plans and sections of the intended works and plans of the lands intended to be taken compulsorily, or in, over or in respect of which easements may be compulsorily acquired under the powers of the intended Act, together with a book of reference to such plans and a copy of this Notice as published in the London Gazette will be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Middlesex at his office at 63, Victoria-street, Westminster, and with the Clerk of the Urban District Council of Harrow-on-the-Hill at his office at High-street, Harrow-on-the-Hill.

Printed copies of the intended Act will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 17th day of December next.

Board of Trade.—Session 1913.

MIDSOMER NORTON GAS.

(Additional Lands for the Manufacture and Storage of Gas; Construction of Further Gasworks; Supply of Gas; Purchase of Lands; Additional Capital and Borrowing Powers; Supply in Bulk; Incorporation of Acts and Other Purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to the Board of Trade on or before the 23rd day of December, 1912, by the Midsomer Norton Gas and Coke Company Limited, whose registered office is at the Gasworks, Midsomer Norton, in the county of Somerset (hereinafter called "the Company") for a Provisional Order (hereinafter called "the Order") under and in pursuance of the Gas and Water Works Facilities Act, 1870, and the Gas and Water Works Facilities Act (1870) Amendment Act, 1873, for all or some of the following amongst other purposes (that is to say):—

1. To authorize the Company upon the lands hereinafter described (as well as upon the lands they are by the Midsomer Norton Gas Order, 1873 (hereinafter called "the Order of 1873") authorized to use, to construct, erect, make and maintain, and from time to time alter, enlarge, improve, renew or discontinue additional gasworks, retorts, retort houses, gas-holders, receivers, purifiers, meters, apparatus, works, conveniences and buildings for the manufacture, distribution, storage, conversion and sale of gas and of coke and of other residual products obtained in the manufacture of gas, and upon such lands or some part or parts thereof to make and store gas, and to make, convert and store residual products. The lands hereinbefore mentioned are wholly situate in the parish and urban district of Midsomer Norton, in the county of Somerset, and are as follows:—

Firstly.—A piece of land belonging, or reputed to belong to, and in the occupation of the Company, containing by admeasurement 34 perches or thereabouts, and forming the southern portion of the enclosure numbered 461 on the Ordnance Map of the parish of Midsomer Norton (Scale $\frac{1}{2500}$ 2nd edition, 1904), bounded on the north by a house (formerly the manager's house) and land of the Company, on the east by Primrose-lane, otherwise Excelsior Terrace-road, on the south by the field or enclosure numbered 615 on the said Ordnance Map, belonging, or reputed to belong to, and in the occupation of Charles William Seymour, and on the west by a piece of land, part of Number 612 on the said Ordnance Map, belonging or reputed to belong to the Company, and in the occupation of R. Welch and Company Limited.

Secondly.—A piece or parcel of land belonging, or reputed to belong to, and in the occupation of the Company, containing by admeasurement 8 perches or thereabouts, and forming the north-western portion of the enclosure numbered 461 on the said Ordnance Map, bounded on the north-west by the enclosure numbered 451 on the said Ordnance Map, belonging or reputed to belong to the trustees of the late William Beachin Beauchamp, and in the occupation of George Wilfred Murch Haydon, on the east and south-east by the land and gas-works of the Company, on the south-west by the enclosure numbered 462 on the said Ordnance Map, belonging or reputed to belong to the Company, and in the occupation of Robert Forester Bennett.

Thirdly.—The two pieces or parcels of land, being part of the enclosure numbered 462 on the said Ordnance Map, belonging, or reputed to belong to the Company, and in the occupation of Robert Forester Bennett, and part of the enclosure numbered 612 on the said Ordnance Map, belonging or reputed to belong to the Company, and in the occupation of R. Welch and Company Limited, containing by admeasurement 2 roods and 26½ perches or thereabouts, bounded on the north by the said enclosure numbered 451 on the said Ordnance Map, on the north-east by the piece of land secondly hereinbefore described, on the east and north by the land and gas-works of the Company, on the east by the said house (formerly the manager's house), and the piece of land firstly hereinbefore described, on the south by a portion of the said enclosure numbered 612 on the said Ordnance Map, and on the west by the remainder of the said enclosures numbered 612 and 462 on the said Ordnance Map.

2. To empower the Company to acquire additional lands for the purposes of their undertaking.

3. To exempt from distress meters, stoves, ranges, engines, dynamos, motors, pipes, and other fittings and apparatus which the Company are, or may by the intended Order, be empowered to provide, sell, let for hire, or otherwise deal in, and to provide that any such fittings and apparatus shall not be taken in execution or in bankruptcy proceedings, but that the same shall remain the property of the Company, although fixed on the consumer's premises.

4. To make provision as to the use of anti-fluctuators, the period of error in the case of defective gas meters, the construction and placing of pipes between the Company's mains and the consumer's meter, notice by gas consumers of intention to quit premises supplied with gas, notice for the discontinuance of a supply of gas, relieving the Company from the obligation to supply persons in debt to the Company, and to make other provision with regard to the supply and consumption of gas, and the payment and recovery of gas and meter rents and charges.

5. To provide that notwithstanding anything contained in the Order of 1873 that a Metropolitan Argand No. 2 Burner should be substituted as the candle power test burner, and that the Company should be authorised to charge special or different rates or charges if desirable for the supply of gas for power, cooking or heating.

6. To enable the Company to purchase, erect or take on lease dwelling houses for persons in their employment and for the purposes of their undertaking.

7. To authorize the Company to lay pipes in streets not dedicated to public use.

8. To authorize the Company to levy and recover rates, rents and charges for the supply, hire or use of meters, engines, stoves, ranges, pipes, fittings, and other apparatus supplied, and for work done by the Company, and to empower the Company to take and use licenses for patent inventions and generally to confer all such further and other powers as may be deemed necessary or expedient for effecting the purposes aforesaid or any of them.

9. To empower the Company to raise additional capital for the general purposes of their undertaking, and for such other purposes as may be authorized by the Order by the creation and issue of new shares or stock, and by borrowing on mortgage or by the creation and issue of debenture stock, or partly in one mode and partly in another or others, and to make further provision in relation to the capital and dividends of the Company.

10. To authorize the Company to supply gas in bulk or otherwise to any local authority, company, or person authorized to supply gas under Parliamentary powers within any district adjacent to the limits of supply.

11. To vary or extinguish all rights or privileges which would impede or interfere with the objects of the intended Order, and to confer other rights and privileges.

12. To alter or amend so far as may be necessary for the purposes of the Order, the Order of 1873, and to incorporate with the Order, with or without modification, all or some of the provisions of that Order and of the Lands Clauses Acts, the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1847, the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1871, and the Acts amending those Acts respectively.

On or before the 30th day of November, 1912, a copy of this Notice as published in the London Gazette and a map showing the lands proposed to be used for the manufacture and storage of gas and residual products, and a plan of the proposed works will be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Somerset at his office at Weston-super-Mare, and on or before the same day will be deposited in the office of the Clerk of the Parliaments, House of Lords, in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, and at the office of the Board of Trade, Whitehall, London.

Printed copies of the Draft Order will be deposited at the Board of Trade on or before the 23rd day of December next, and copies thereof, when deposited, and of the Order when made, may be obtained at the price of One Shilling for each copy at the office of the under-mentioned Solicitor and Parliamentary Agents.

Every Company, Corporation or Person desirous of making any representation to the Board of Trade, or of bringing before them any objection respecting the application, may do so by letter addressed to the Assistant Secretary of the Railway Department of the Board of Trade on or before the 15th day of January, 1913, and copies of such objections must at the same time be sent to the under-mentioned Solicitor or Parliamentary Agents. In forwarding such objections to the Board of Trade the objectors or their agents should state that a copy of the same has been sent to the promoters or their agents.

Dated this first day of November, 1912.
