

undertaking free from the provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts with respect to superfluous lands.

13. To alter the prescribed apparatus and burner for the testing of gas and make further provision with regard to the quality, pressure and testing of gas and illuminating power, and to provide for the reduction of the quality of gas.

14. To enable the Company to erect, fit up, maintain and let houses and buildings for persons in their employ and offices and showrooms for the purpose of their undertaking.

15. To enable the Company for the purpose of supplying gas to premises abutting on any street or road not dedicated to public use, to lay down, maintain and renew, mains, pipes and other works in, over and under such street or road, and to lay down, maintain and remove pipes and apparatus for the disposal of oil and liquids, and for other ancillary purposes, and to apply the provisions of the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to the breaking up of such streets for the purposes aforesaid.

16. To enlarge the powers of the Company to provide, deal in, hire, let, sell, fit up or repair meters, fittings, pipes, engines, dynamos, stoves, and other apparatus for supplying or measuring gas for warming, lighting, cooking or for motive power, and for effecting other purposes by means of gas or products from the manufacture of gas, and to authorize the Company to execute any work or afford services in connection therewith, and to provide that any such meters and other apparatus and things before enumerated shall not be subject to distress or the landlord's remedy for rent or be liable to be taken in execution under any process of any Court or any proceedings in bankruptcy.

17. To make provision with reference to the following amongst other matters:—

(a) The inspection and specification by the Company of internal gas fittings on consumers' premises, and the construction and placing of pipes and other apparatus and appliances between the Company's mains and the consumers' premises.

(b) The use, testing and inspection of anti-fluctuators.

(c) The giving of notice to the Company before discontinuing the taking of a supply of gas, and the authentication and service of notices by the Company and the giving of discounts.

(d) The refusal to supply gas to a consumer in debt to the Company and the removal of apparatus from premises where supply of gas cut off.

(e) The prescribing of the period during which allowances or surcharges shall be made in the case of defective gas meters.

(f) The exemption of the Company from penalties in cases arising from unavoidable causes and by reason of the presence in the gas of sulphur impurities other than sulphuretted hydrogen.

(g) The charge, differential or otherwise, to be made for gas supplied, whether by ordinary or prepayment meters, and the rent to be charged for such meters.

(h) The payment to be made for gas supplied to any person having a separate supply of gas for power or other purposes, and the terms and conditions upon which such supply is to be given by the Company.

(i) The recovery of demands in the County Court.

(j) The repeal of the whole or parts of section 8 of the Slough Gas Order of 1884 as to public lamps and supply in Farnham Royal.

18. To empower the Company to enter into and carry into effect contracts and arrangements for the supply of gas in bulk or otherwise to any corporation, county council, or sanitary authority, railway company or any other company, body or person within or beyond the limits of supply for gas for such price or consideration, preferential or otherwise, and on such other terms and conditions as they think fit, and to vary, suspend or rescind any such contracts or arrangements.

19. To confer upon the Company all powers, rights, privileges and authorities necessary for carrying the powers of the intended Act into execution, and to vary or extinguish all or any rights or privileges inconsistent with or which would interfere with any of the objects and provisions of the intended Act, and to confer other rights and privileges.

20. To incorporate, with such variations and modifications as may be deemed expedient, all or some of the provisions of the Companies Clauses Acts, 1845 to 1889; the Lands Clauses Acts; and the Gas Works Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1871.

To alter, amend, extend or repeal the provisions or some of the provisions of the Slough Gas Act, 1866, and the Slough Gas Order, 1884; the Slough Gas Order, 1898; and the Slough Gas Order, 1901; and any other Act relating to or affecting the Company; and the Uxbridge Gas Act, 1906.

And notice is further given, that on or before the 17th day of December next printed copies of the intended Act will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 14th day of November, 1912.
