Board of Trade (Harbour Department),

London, 2nd December, 1912.

H. 14783.

The Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from His Majesty's Minister at the Hague, reporting that an Official Notice to the following effect has appeared in the Staatscourant, viz.:—

From November 22, 1912, the importation and carriage in transit of rags, used wearing apparel, and unwashed underclothing and bedding from any of the ports of Turkey in Europe is forbidden.

This prohibition includes baggage brought by travellers in so far as unwashed underclothing and bedding are concerned; it does not, however, extend to the import and carriage in transit of goods which have arrived from the above-named places, but in regard to which it appears sufficiently clearly that they have some other place of origin, and that they are packed and have been transported in such manner that
