

the date of the next avoidance of the said benefice of Worthen or which may thereafter belong to the same benefice shall be charged and for ever thereafter chargeable in favour of the incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Hope with the annual sum or yearly charge hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, a clear annual sum or yearly charge of forty-four pounds, the same annual sum or yearly charge of forty-four pounds to be as from the day aforesaid due and payable to the incumbent of the said benefice of Hope and the same annual sum or yearly charge to be apportionable between any outgoing incumbent of the benefice of Hope or his representatives on the one hand and his successors in the same incumbency on the other hand; and to be receivable by the incumbent in whose favour it is charged as aforesaid by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in every year.

“And we further recommend and propose that the incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Hope shall have the following powers for recovering the said rent charge of forty-four pounds per annum hereby proposed to be created in favour of the benefice of which he is incumbent as aforesaid (that is to say); power, if and whenever any part of the said rent charge shall at any time be unpaid for twenty-one days after any of the times appointed for the payment thereof (although there shall not have been any legal demand made thereof) to enter into the receipt of the endowments charged therewith or any part thereof and to receive and take the same until he shall thereby or otherwise be paid and satisfied the same rent charge and the arrears thereof due at the time of such entry or afterwards to become due during his being in possession of the same premises together with all costs and expenses occasioned by the nonpayment thereof and for the purpose of collecting receiving and recovering such endowments or any of them to use exercise and enjoy all such powers and remedies for collecting recovering and enforcing payment thereof and of the annual sums payable for or towards the raising or making up the same as may be statutorily exercised or exercisable by him under the law then in force.

“Provided always that if at any time the incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Worthen shall by any deed duly executed by him under his hand and seal in accordance with the provisions of any statute in that behalf enabling him, grant convey and annex to the said benefice of Hope any part or parts of the rectorial endowments belonging to the said benefice of Worthen which shall in the opinion of the bishop of the said diocese of Hereford for the time being be a just and fair equivalent or not less than an equivalent for the said yearly charge of forty-four pounds hereby proposed to be created as aforesaid, then the same annual sum or yearly charge of forty-four pounds shall thereupon and thenceforth cease and determine and be no longer payable as hereinbefore recommended and proposed.

“And provided also that the whole of the first fruits and tenths now payable to the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty in respect of the said benefice of Worthen shall continue to be payable by the incumbent of such benefice.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Hereford.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 16th day of December, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter ninety-four; of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four; and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme or Representation, bearing date the seventeenth day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting under the provisions of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter ninety-four, of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme or Representation for altering the boundaries of the New Parish of Holmside and of the New Parish of Beamish, both in the County of Durham and in the Diocese of Durham.

“Whereas by the authority of an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council bearing date the twenty-ninth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and published in the London Gazette on the following day, certain portions of the Parish of Lancaster, of the Parish of Chester le Street, of the Parochial Chapelry of Witton Gilbert, and of the Parochial Chapelry of Tanfield, all in the said county and diocese, were constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and
