

years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Benwick, in the county of Cambridge and in the Diocese of Ely.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Benwick is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession free from incumbrances in William Hardy Wood, of Benwick Rectory, March, in the said county of Cambridge, Clerk in Holy Orders.

"And whereas the said William Hardy Wood is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Benwick now vested in him as aforesaid should after the exercise of the next turn of presentation if such next turn of presentation fall to be exercised during the lifetime of the said William Hardy Wood, and, if it do not so fall, then as from the date of the decease of him, the said William Hardy Wood, be transferred to and be vested in the Right Reverend Frederic Henry, now Bishop of Ely, and his successors in the same Bishoprick.

"And whereas the said Frederic Henry, Bishop of Ely, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the Diocese which by the Acts in the hereinafter mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said Frederic Henry, Bishop of Ely, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Benwick which is hereinafter mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Benwick.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said William Hardy Wood (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said Frederic Henry, Bishop of Ely (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Benwick, now vested in him, the said William Hardy Wood, as aforesaid, shall after the exercise of the said next turn of presentation if such next turn of presentation fall to be exercised during the lifetime of the said William Hardy Wood, and, if it do not so fall, then as from the date of the decease of him, the said William Hardy Wood, be transferred to the said Frederic Henry, Bishop of Ely, and his successors in the same Bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Frederic Henry, Bishop of Ely, and by his successors in the same Bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Ely.
