

successors to the Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Hanley William with Hanley Child."

"RANDALL CANTUAR."

Now therefore His Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased to make a Supplemental Order for removing the doubts which have arisen as aforesaid and doth order, as it is hereby ordered, that the detached portion of the ecclesiastical parish of Eastham, known as Fulham's estate, situate in the county and diocese of Hereford, shall be and is hereby separated from the benefice of Eastham and annexed to the benefice of Hanley William with Hanley Child, situate in the same county and diocese, and further that the liability to repair the chancel of the Parish Church of Hanley William shall be transferred from the Rector of the said benefice of Eastham and his successors to the Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Hanley William with Hanley Child.

And this Order shall be deemed to be and construed as part of the said Order in Council of the 22nd day of November, 1909.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of February, 1913.

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order made by the late King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council, on the 19th March, 1908, His Majesty was pleased to order (amongst other things) that, where any property belonging to or held for the benefit of a unit of Volunteers or Yeomanry, mentioned in the first column of the Schedule to that Order, was vested in or held by any Trustees other than the Commanding Officer of such unit, those Trustees should, until otherwise directed by Order in Council, under section 29 of the Territorial and Reserve Forces Act, 1907, be appointed in regard to the property so vested in or held by them to be special Trustees, to the exclusion of the Association, and should continue to hold such property in trust for the corresponding unit of the Territorial Force in like manner in all respects as they previously held it for the unit of the Volunteers or Yeomanry, and that the corresponding unit should, notwithstanding any trust, limitation or condition affecting any such property, continue entitled to the benefit thereof in like manner as the unit was entitled thereto before it became a unit of the Territorial Force:

And whereas by virtue of the above-recited provisions of the said Order in Council the Trustees named in the first column of the Schedule to this Order hold the property described and set opposite to their names in the second column of that Schedule in trust for the unit of the Territorial Force mentioned in the third column of that Schedule for the purposes and subject to the limitations mentioned in the deed (if any) referred to in the fourth column of that Schedule, and it is expedient that such property should be transferred from those Trustees to the County Association mentioned in the fifth column of that Schedule.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that as from the date of this Order the said property shall be by virtue of this Order transferred from the said Trustees to and vested in the said County Association, subject to any charges thereon and to any liabilities in or towards the discharge of which the said property is properly applicable, and shall be held by that Association in like manner in all respects as it was held by the said Trustees for the benefit of the said unit of the Territorial Force or for such other purposes as the Association, with the consent of the said unit (to be ascertained in manner prescribed by regulations of the Army Council), shall direct, but so that the interest of any beneficiary other than the said unit or the unit of the Volunteers or Yeomanry with which it corresponds shall not without the consent of such beneficiary be affected.

Almeric FitzRoy.
