

"And whereas the said Augustus, Bishop of the said Diocese of Lichfield, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness, and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited, or by some or one of them is made necessary, he, the said Augustus, Bishop of the said Diocese of Lichfield, has executed this Scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas it appears to us that the transfer of the patronage of the said Benefice of Silverdale which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the Parish of Silverdale.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the said Charles James Winn, Vicar or Incumbent of the said Parish of Wolstanton, acting as such Vicar or Incumbent (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Scheme), and with the consent of the said Augustus, Bishop of the said Diocese of Lichfield (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Silverdale now vested in him, the said Charles James Winn, as such Vicar or Incumbent of the said Vicarage of Wolstanton as aforesaid, shall be transferred from him, the said Charles James Winn, and from his successors, Vicars or Incumbents of the said Vicarage of Wolstanton, to the said Augustus, Bishop of the said Diocese of Lichfield, and his successors, Bishops of the same Diocese; and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Augustus, Bishop of the said Diocese of Lichfield, and by his successors, Bishops of the same Diocese for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Lichfield.
