

sioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said Church of Saint Andrew, situate at Langley Mill as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal Wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The district chapelry of Saint Andrew, Langley Mill, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Heanor, in the county of Derby, and in the diocese of Southwell, which is bounded upon the south-east by the new parish of Cotmanhay, in the said county of Derby and in the said diocese of Southwell, upon the east partly by the parish of Eastwood and partly by the new parish of Brinsley, both in the county of Nottingham, and in the said diocese of Southwell, upon the north partly by the new parish of Ironville and partly by the new parish of Codnor and Loscoe, both in the said county of Derby and in the said diocese of Southwell, upon the west by the said new parish of Codnor and Loscoe, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the south-west, by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said new parish of Codnor and Loscoe from the said parish of Heanor crosses the middle of the line of the Mineral Railway running from the Loscoe Colliery to the Heanor goods branch line of the Midland Railway, and extending thence first eastward and then south-eastward along the middle of the said Mineral Line of Railway and along the middle of the said Branch Line of Railway for a distance in all of one mile and twelve chains or thereabouts to the junction of such Branch Line of Railway with the main line of the said Midland Railway, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said main line of the Midland Railway for a distance of forty-six chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of Heanor from the said new parish of Cotmanhay."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Southwell.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of February, 1913.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 7th day of February, 1913, in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas we consider it desirable that provision should be made for the promotion of Warrant Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and Men to Commissioned Rank in Your Majesty's Marine Force:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction the following arrangements:—

"(1) Two commissions to be granted each year.

"(2) Selected candidates to be given the rank of Acting Royal Marine Gunner and to be granted a Uniform Allowance of £20.

"(3) After undergoing such courses of instruction as may be laid down from time to time, and after passing a qualifying examination, Acting Royal Marine Gunners to be granted the rank of Second Lieutenant, Royal Marines, receiving a further gratuity of £100 for uniform and outfit and £10 for mess entrance and subscriptions.

"(4) After undergoing further instruction and after passing the examination for the rank of Lieutenant Royal Marines to be embarked in a sea-going ship for six months and to be eligible for promotion to the rank of Lieutenant Royal Marines at the end of that time.

"(5) The rates of pay prior to promotion to the rank of Lieutenant, Royal Marines, to be as shown in the annexed Schedule.

"(6) On promotion, such Lieutenants to be governed in all respects by the Regulations in force for Officers of the Royal Marine Force.

"(7) In addition to the two commissions referred to above a combatant commission as Lieutenant Royal Marines to be granted at our discretion, to any Warrant Officer, Non-Commissioned Officer, or Man who may perform some specially meritorious service or for distinguished War Service. Officers thus promoted to receive pay and gratuities for outfit and uniform and for Mess entrance and subscriptions as recommended above.

"(8) Lieutenants of the Royal Marines promoted under either of the above mentioned recommendations to be included in the authorized establishment of the Corps.
