

fifteenth years of her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Representation, bearing date the sixteenth day of January in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Margaret, Thornbury, situate within the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Mary, Laister Dyke, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon.

“ Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Saint Mary, Laister Dyke, and of the parish of Calverley, in the said county and diocese, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parish and parish.

“ And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said new parish of Saint Mary, Laister Dyke, and of the said parish of Calverley, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Margaret, Thornbury, situate as aforesaid.

“ Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Thomas Wortley, Bishop of Ripon, as such Bishop, and also as the patron, in right of his See, of the vicarage of the said parish of Calverley, and with the consents of the Reverend Ernest Augustus Eardley-Wilmot, of Saint Jude's Vicarage, South Kensington, S.W., Clerk in Holy Orders and a Prebendary of the Cathedral Church of Wells, of the Reverend Robert Baker Girdlestone, of Saxholme, Wimbledon, in the county of Surrey, Clerk in Holy Orders and an Honorary Canon of the Cathedral Church of Christ, in Oxford, of the Reverend Arthur Evelyn Barnes-Lawrence, of Number 6, Church Terrace, Blackheath, in the county of Kent, Clerk in Holy Orders and an Honorary Canon of the Cathedral Church of Southwark, of the Reverend Edward Alexander Stuart, of The Precincts, Canterbury, in the said county of Kent, Clerk in Holy Orders and a Canon of the Cathedral and Metropolitan Church of Christ, in Canterbury, and of the Right Reverend James Denton, Bishop of Sodor and Man, as the patrons of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Mary, Laister Dyke (in testimony whereof they, the said consenting parties, have respectively signed and sealed this Representation), We, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Saint Mary, Laister Dyke, and of the said parish of Calverley, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said Church of Saint Margaret, Thornbury, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘ The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Margaret, Thornbury.’

“ We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal Wisdom shall seem meet.

“ The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference:—

“ The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Margaret, Thornbury, comprising—

“ All those contiguous portions of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Mary, Laister Dyke, and of the parish of Calverley, both in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon, which, taken together, are bounded upon the north-west partly by the new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Greengates, and partly by the new parish of Saint Luke, Eccleshill, upon the west partly by the new parish of Saint Augustine, Undercliffe, Bradford, and partly by the new parish of Saint Clement, Bradford, all in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the south-west, upon the south-east, and upon the east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Clement, Bradford, from the said new parish of Saint Mary, Laister Dyke, at the junction of Killinghall Road with Thornbury Road, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of Thornbury Road for a distance of twenty chains or thereabouts to its junction with Leeds Road, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of Leeds Road for a distance of ten yards or thereabouts to its junction with Thornbury Street, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of Thornbury Street for a distance of eight chains or thereabouts to its junction with Derby Road, and with the footpath leading into New Lane near its junction with Dick Lane, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of such footpath for a distance of ten chains or thereabouts to its junction with New Lane, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of New Lane for a distance of two chains or thereabouts to its junction with Dick Lane, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of Dick Lane for a distance of two chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries such lane across the Leeds, Bradford and Halifax Line of the Great Northern Railway, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of such line of railway for a distance of eighteen chains and a half or thereabouts to the centre
