

ton, with the consent of the Right Honourable Herbert Henry Asquith, the First Lord of Your Majesty's Treasury, acting on behalf of Your Majesty as the other alternate patron of the said vicarage of the new parish of Wellington, with the consent of the Reverend Alfred William Carter, of Number 54, Priory Road, Kew, in the county of Surrey, Clerk in Holy Orders, as the patron of the vicarage of the said district parish of Shelton, and with the consent of the Reverend Henry Venn Stuart, Clerk in Holy Orders, Rector or Incumbent of the rectory of the parish of Stoke-upon-Trent, in the said county of Stafford and diocese of Lichfield, and as such Rector or Incumbent, the patron of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Jude, Hanley (in testimony whereof they, the said consenting parties, have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Wellington, of the said district parish of Shelton, and of the said new parish of Saint Jude, Hanley, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of All Saints, Hanley, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of All Saints, Hanley.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal Wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The consolidated chapelry of All Saints, Hanley, comprising:—

"All those contiguous portions of the new parish (sometime district) of Wellington, of the new parish (sometime district) of Saint Jude, Hanley, and of the district parish of Shelton, all in the county of Stafford and in the diocese of Lichfield, which, taken together, are bounded upon the north-east partly by the parish of Bucknall and Bagnall, and partly by the new parish of Northwood, both in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the north-west, upon the west, upon the south, and upon the south-east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Northwood from the said new parish of Wellington at the centre of Ivy House Bridge which carries Bucknall Road across the Caldon Canal, and extending thence first south-westward and then in various directions along the middle of the said canal (thereby crossing the boundary which divides the said new parish of Wellington from the said district parish of Shelton) for a distance of one mile and nine chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries Ridgway Road across such canal, and extending thence southward along the middle of Ridgway Road for a distance of eight chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with the road called Poplar Grove, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of Poplar Grove for a distance of three chains or thereabouts to its junction with Leek Road, and continuing thence south-eastward in precisely the same direction and in a straight line for a distance of ten chains or thereabouts to a point in the middle of the River Trent upon the boundary which divides the said district parish of Shelton from the said new parish of Saint Jude, Hanley, and extending thence first south-eastward and then in various directions along the middle of the River Trent (thereby following in part the last-mentioned boundary) for a distance of twenty-six chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the outlet of the watercourse from the Berry Hill Colliery Pumping Station, and extending thence north-eastward to and along the fence which indicates the position of the said watercourse for a distance of two chains or thereabouts to the point where such fence meets the boundary of the county borough of Stoke-on-Trent, and extending thence first north-eastward, then south-eastward, and then again north-eastward along the said county borough boundary (thereby crossing Fenton Road) for a distance of nineteen chains or thereabouts to the point where such boundary crosses the fence forming the western boundary of the Biddulph Valley Branch Line of the North Staffordshire Railway, and extending thence eastward in a straight line (thereby crossing the said branch line of railway and the roadway leading from Berry Hill to Fenton) for a distance of thirty-three chains or thereabouts to the point south of the pool situate on the eastern side of such roadway where the boundary of the said county borough of Stoke-on-Trent diverges eastward from the said roadway, and extending thence first eastward and then in various directions along the said county borough boundary (thereby following in part the south-western side of the roadway leading from the Berry Hill and Holly Bush Collieries to the Lawn Colliery) for a distance of sixty chains or thereabouts to the point where the said county borough boundary diverges south-westward from the last-mentioned roadway, and extending thence first north-eastward to the middle of such roadway and then first south-eastward and then north-eastward along the middle of the same roadway (thereby crossing the Longton, Adderley Green and Bucknall Branch Line of the North Staffordshire Railway) for a distance of twenty chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge or culvert which carries such roadway across the stream known as The Brook, upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Jude, Hanley, from the said parish of Bucknall and Bagnall."

And whereas the said Representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.
